COTTON PROBE IS TO GO DEEP

President Gives Orders to Investigate Agricultural Department.

MUST KNOW TRUTH

Mr. Roosevelt Says: "Let Facts Be Known and Prosecute Culprits."

MORE CHARGES ARE MADE

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU
Room 10, Postal Building.
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 11.

"Go to the bottom. Find out all the facts and uncover all the culprits. Then let the facts be known and the culprits be prosecuted."

These are, in effect, the instructions under which a new investigation of the bureau of statistics of the agricultural department with its attendant scandals over the sale of advance information as to cotton, corn, wheat and tobacco, was begun today. The man who gave the instructions was Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States. The man who is to conduct the investigation is Henry M. Hoyt, solicitor general of the United States.

Solicitor General Hoyt late this afternoon sent for District Attorney Beach, whose controversy with Secretary Wilson has attracted considerable attention, and asked him to take personal charge of the work of probing into the affairs of the bureau of statistics. Mr. Beach was told that he could have carte blanche and that he would not be interfered with in any way.

The Truth Must Be Known.

This sudden change in policy was in a measure anticipated by the news from Oyster Bay printed this morning, showing that the president was dissatisfied with the policy of "smoothing over" which had been pursued in the department of agriculture and that he wanted the truth to be known, even if it threatens the very existence of the department of agriculture.

The orders issued by the president of which the spirit is given above bear a striking similarity with those given by him to former Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow when he instructed him to make an investigation of the post office department. It is understood that the president desires a complete overhauling of the bureau of statistics.

In consequence of this decision of the president, Secretary Wilson transmitted to the department of justice this morning what he said was every scrap of evidence in the possession of the agricultural department bearing upon this great scandal, including much more information that he gave to the public in his own famous statement of last Saturday. The secretary accompanied the transmittal of documents in the case with an offer to Mr. Hoyt to participate in the inquiry, to aid in every way he could, and to pay the expenses of the investigation out of the contingent fund of the agricultural department.

Mr. Hyde May Retire.

One of the things that is expected to happen very soon is the retirement, temporarily at least, at his own request, of Mr. Hyde, the chief of the bureau of statistics. It is the habit of the agricultural department to have men suspend themselves or to be relieved of duty at their own request. It is admitted even at the department that it would be manifestly indelicate for Mr. Hyde to remain in charge of the bureau of statistics while the integrity of his entire bureau is being investigated by outside agents under orders of the president of the United States. At the same time the department insists there is nothing against Mr. Hyde.

There are several sections of the revised statutes under which the attorney general may decide to act, and of these the one which seems to promise the best chance of success is section 5451. It provides that anyone who gives or promises to give money, or any other thing of value to any officer or employe of the government to do, or refrain from doing any duty shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by fine or imprisonment or both.

Formal charges have been made to the department that there has been jugglery with reference to some of the tobacco estimates for June. Letters making complaint that these estimates are entirely too high and are put forth for the purpose of bearing the price of tobacco in the interest of the tobacco trust, have been made by the Tobacco Growers' association of Kentucky and Tennessee. Officials of the agricultural department today admitted that they were not very sure of their figures as to Kentucky tobacco. They say that the department's report might be correct or it might be incorrect.

PEARY WILL SET SAIL TOMORROW OR FRIDAY

Starts on Another Search for the North Pole, but Is Still Short About Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, July 11.—Another $10,000 was contributed today toward the expenses of the Peary polar expedition, making $26,000 given within the last few days, in addition to checks for amounts as small as $2. This leaves the fund requisite for a complete equipment of the expedition still lacking about $25,000, but Mr. Peary is so confident that the money will be supplied that he announced tonight that the Roosevelt would certainly sail on her hazardous voyage Thursday or Friday.

Gen. Thomas H. Hubbard was the donor of today's $10,000, making $20,000 he has given to the expedition. Mr. Peary made no attempt to conceal his disappointment that nobody has come forward to establish a $25,000 fund he proposed from which to reward the members of his crew if the expedition proves successful.

PREPARING FOR DASH TO THE NORTH POLE

COMMANDER PEARY AND HIS SAILING MASTER.

THINK ROOT WILL NOT BUILD CANAL

Washington Officials Do Not Believe Task Will Be Taken from Mr. Taft.

WOULD IMPEDE THE WORK

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU
Room 10, Postal Building.
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 11.

In the absence of an official announcement from the president, state and war department officials here are not inclined to give credence to the report that the Panama commission is to be transferred from the war to the state department. Such a change, it is claimed, would amount to a reflection upon Secretary Taft and would place the work of building the canal in a department that is not equipped for the task.

At the request of the president, Secretary Taft took personal charge of the building of the canal last fall and made a trip to the isthmus. He went into the details of the work and has been giving the questions growing out of the work most of his time. It was Secretary Taft who prepared the instructions for the Walker commission and under his directions the work of digging dirt was started. When the complaint was made that the work was not progressing as it should the president assigned to Secretary Taft the duties of reorganizing the commission.

The members of the new commission were selected by Taft as well as the consulting engineers. The entire machinery of the commission was put together by Taft and in the opinion of department officials no one would be able to handle the organization as he can. A change in the head of the canal organization at this time, it is urged, would actually delay the work. If Secretary Root took charge it would be necessary for him to take up the matter as Taft did, and a state of uncertainty would be created in the commission and upon the canal strip that would have a demoralizing effect upon the work.

Aside from this the construction of the canal is an engineering project. If the commission were under the jurisdiction of the state department it would be compelled to go to the war department for its engineering force. It would be as practicable to transfer the river and harbor work to the state department as to place the digging of the canal in the hands of the state department. The president took this view of the situation when he issued instructions to the Panama commission May 9, 1904.

Since the president issued this order he may have changed his mind, but the department officials do not believe it. It is thought that it will be the policy of the president to make as few changes in the administration of the affairs of the commission as possible, and he will not be inclined to transfer the canal to the jurisdiction of another department, except for a good cause. PRINCE CHARLES WILL TAKE NORWAY'S THRONE

He Is Willing to Accept the Office of King Providing King Christian Approves.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

COPENHAGEN, July 11.—It is understood that Prince Charles of Denmark will be willing to accept the crown of Norway if King Christian and the Danish government consent.

Some of the members of the royal family are in favor of his acceptance of the crown, but King Christian is believed to be opposed to it. No decision, however, will be given out before his majesty returns from Gmunden, Austria, next week.

PARIS, July 11.—Baron D'Estournelles de Constant, the French member of The Hague peace tribunal, has written a letter to Premier Rouvier urging French intermediation in the conflict between Norway and Sweden.

JEALOUS MAN SLAYS WOMAN AND HIMSELF

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 11.—A murder and suicide this afternoon ended the lives of Edward O. Doughty and Mela S. Clyde of Philadelphia. Doughty was jealous of the woman. He met her today on the street and drawing a revolver chased her into a store and sent several bullets into her breast. He then shot himself, dying instantly.

FRIGHTFUL DEATH OF WELSH MINERS

One Hundred and Twenty-Six Coal Diggers Entombed as the Result of Explosion.

SIXTY-EIGHT DEAD TAKEN OUT

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

CARDIFF, WALES, July 11.—An explosion of fire damp in No. 3 pit of the United Colliery Company at Wattstown in the Rhondda valley, the center of the great Welch coal fields, this morning is believed to have resulted in the loss of at least 126 lives. So far 68 bodies have been taken out.

The explosion was followed immediately by the belching of clouds of smoke and dust from the pit shaft, in which 150 men were working. The force of the explosion wrecked the machinery at the mouth of the pit, which cut off all communication with the entombed men in this direction. Eight hundred men in shaft No. 2, adjoining that of the doomed men, were drawn up in safety.

Heroic efforts have been made for hours to reach the entombed men, but late tonight the absence of all sound from the interior of the mine told the tale of the worst disaster that has taken place in South Wales since 1894.

DORTMUND, PRUSSIA, July 11.—Efforts to rescue the 39 men who were cut off by the fire in the Borussia coal mine yesterday, have been without success, and it is feared they have perished.

WESTINGHOUSE OFFER TEMPTED MR. WALLACE

Proposed Traction Work May Have Taken Him from Panama.

That an offer from the Westinghouse interests was the one which induced John F. Wallace to resign as chief engineer of the Panama canal, bringing down upon himself the wrath of the administration, was stated yesterday with considerable authority. At the Pittsburgh offices the rumor was not confirmed or denied. It was merely said any offer of the kind would come from the engineering and contracting concern of the Westinghouse interests, Westinghouse, Church, Kerr & Company, of New York.

The offer made to Mr. Wallace, it is stated, involved his active services in connection with plans for the construction of very important interurban street railway systems. The single-phase alternating current which has been successfully developed by the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company for traction use, figures largely in this plan, according to belief, as it is claimed that in this system the solution of the long-distance electric line problem has been found.

Mr. Wallace would have brought, and may yet bring, to the company the ripest of railway construction engineering experience. It is not known that the caustic criticisms made by Secretary of War Taft have so hurt Mr. Wallace in the estimation of his prospective associates that he will not be called upon to carry out the plans.

BRIDGE CASE HURRIED.

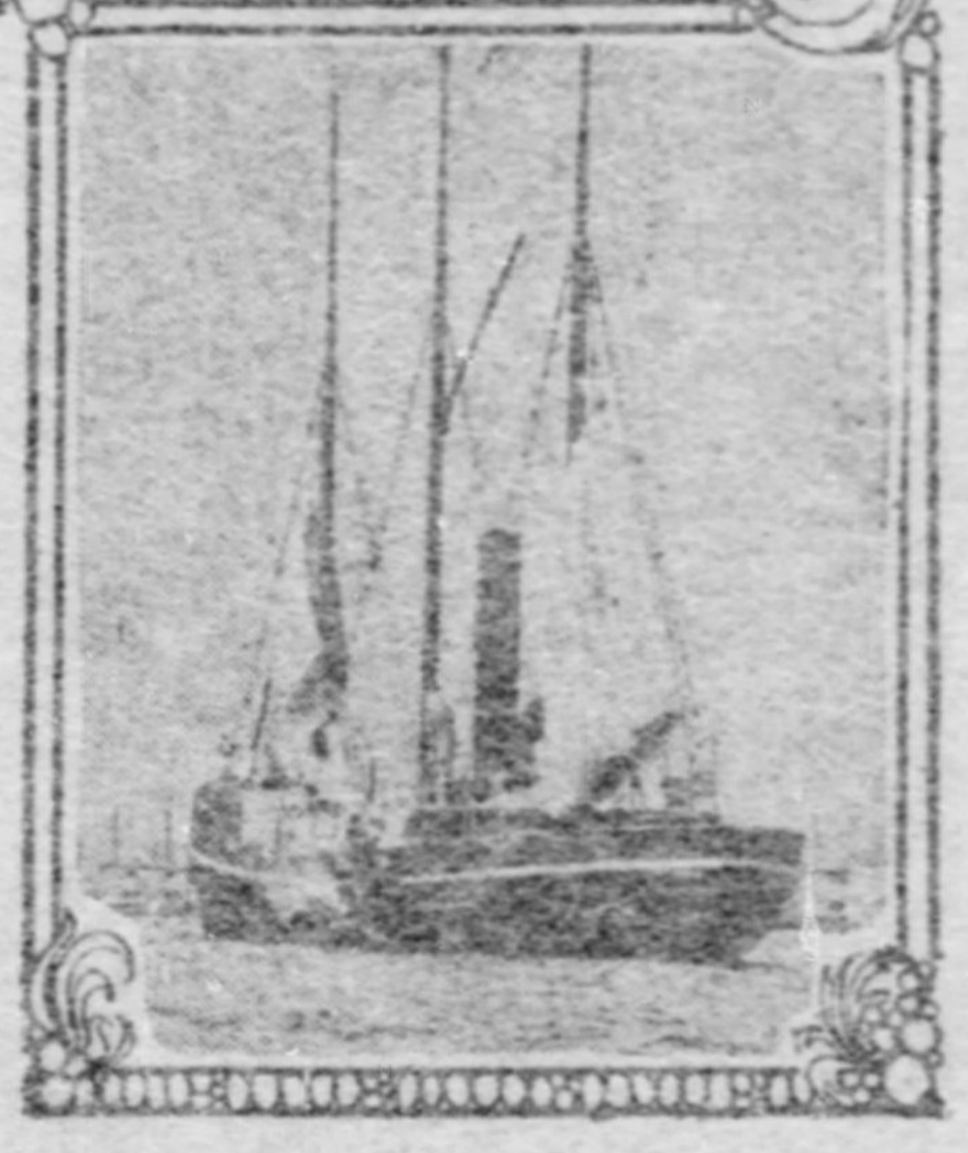
United States District Attorney Is Ordered to Push It to Trial at Once.

Advices were received at the war department at Washington yesterday from Attorney General Moody to the effect that he had issued instructions to the United States district attorney at Pittsburgh to proceed at once in the prosecution of the Union Bridge Company.

It is understood that the attorney general is anxious to bring this case to trial at the earliest possible date. Before he left for the Philippines Secretary Taft discussed with Attorney General Moody the importance of the case and the desire of the department to have the bridge raised.

Mrs. Oelrich's Jewels Stolen.

NEWPORT, R. I., July 11.—When Mrs. Charles Oelrich returned to her cottage here tonight, after an absence of two hours, she discovered that jewelry valued at $10,000 had been taken from her dressing case. The Newport police were notified of the robbery. Among the jewels lost are a diamond tiara and several pearl and diamond ornaments.



THE "ROOSEVELT," ON WHICH PEARY WILL SAIL.

LIBEL SUIT CONCERNS MISS ALICE ROOSEVELT

New York Editor Is Prosecuted for Attacking Her Congressmen Friends.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, July 11.—Miss Alice Roosevelt's introduction through Congressman Nicholas Longworth to Congressman Joseph L. Rhinock of Kentucky, and George B. Cox, of Cincinnati, at Latonia, some weeks ago, was the subject of an article in the New Yorker, a weekly publication, which today resulted in the arrest for libel of the editor, Robert W. Criswell, by direction of District Attorney Jerome.

The paragraph which refers to the introduction of the president's daughter at the Latonia clubhouse, refers contemptuously to Longworth, Rhinock and Cox, particularly attacking Congressman Longworth and alleging he sought political advancement by introducing his supposed fiancee, Miss Roosevelt, to politicians. Direct assertion derogatory to Rhinock and Cox were also made in the article.

As a result it is said that as soon as the district attorney's office can determine who beside Criswell shares the blame, more warrants will be issued. The criminal proceedings were the outcome of Congressman Rhinock's coming to New York to begin civil suit against the New Yorker.

GETTING TROUBLE ASSORTED.

Maj. McDowell Examining Evidence in Contested Election Cases for Congress.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—(Special.)—Clerk of the House Alexander McDowell of Sharon was in Washington today for the purpose of opening the testimony to be used in considering the seven contested election cases that will come up for consideration when congress meets in the fall.

There are three cases from South Carolina, and one each from Maryland, Texas, Missouri and Hawaii. In the latter case, quite a large amount of testimony has been secured, and it is probable that the house will devote many days in its consideration.

FIVE ARE DEAD; MANY SUFFER

Four Lose Lives in Rivers, While the Heat Kills the Fifth

BOY RESCUERS DIE

Temperature Was Not So High, but the Humidity Made It Unbearable.

SEVERE STORMS IN EVENING

It was not so extremely hot yesterday, according to the thermometer, which went no higher than 85 degrees, but the humidity, 75 per cent, made the temperature almost unbearable. As a result four deaths are reported from drowning, the victims, all boys, seeking relief in the rivers, and one death from heat. In addition, there were many prostrations. The list follows:

THE DEAD.

DEWITT KISSELL, aged 15, of 7410 Race street; drowned while bathing in the Allegheny river at Coleman station.

HARRY ALLISON, aged 18, of 7408 Idlewild street; drowned while bathing in the Allegheny river at Coleman station.

ANTON FELDMEIER, aged 12, of 59 Picnic street; drowned while bathing in the Monongahela river near Becks Run.

FRANK BYERS, aged 11, of Holt street; drowned while bathing in the Monongahela river near Becks Run.

UNKNOWN MAN, about 45 years old; died from the heat in the stable of Joseph Wolfe at Braddock.

PROSTRATED BY HEAT.

MICHAEL FRUKI, mill man; overcome while at work at McKeesport. Taken to the McKeesport hospital.

H. A. THOMAS, 813 Carson street, McKeesport; overcome in front of his home. Removed to the McKeesport hospital.

JOHN MILLER, 630 Fifth avenue, McKeesport, foreman at National tube works; overcome and fell 15 feet from scaffold, fracturing three ribs. Removed to McKeesport hospital.

THOMAS WARD, Atlantic avenue, McKeesport; overcome while at work in the National tube works. Taken home.

RAYMOND MORRIS, 225 East Jefferson street, Allegheny; overcome while riding in a street car at Homestead and fell off, cutting his head.

OSLANTI RUCHKAWSKY, aged 48, Forty-seventh street and Plum alley; overcome while on his way to work. Taken to West Penn hospital.

THEODORE BECK, aged 72, 300 Pacific avenue; overcome at his home and removed to St. Francis hospital.

THE REV. J. A. HETNER, Greensburg, overcome while visiting friends at Hays. He was walking about the streets when stricken and was taken to the hotel. His condition is serious.

UNKNOWN ITALIAN, found unconscious in South Twelfth street. Taken to the South Side hospital.

Rescuer Was Also Drowned.

Dewitt Kissell and Harry Allison were bathing at Coleman station. Kissell was swimming near the bank and was seized with cramps. He called to Allison to rescue him.

"You wait, I am coming," answered Allison.

Allison jumped in the water and swam to Kissell, who by this time had sunk twice. When Kissell came to the surface a third time Allison grabbed him by the hair. Kissell turned in his struggles and threw his arm about Allison's neck. Both boys sank and were drowned. When their bodies were recovered later they were locked in each other's arms.

Upon receipt of the news of the death of Dewitt Kissell, arrangements for the picnic of the Homewood Avenue Presbyterian Sabbath school and church on Thursday, July 13, of which Kissell was a member, were discontinued.

Anton Feldmeier and Frank Byers were swimming in the Monongahela river near Becks run and were drowned in front of a small companion. The accident was similar to the drowning of Clinton and Allison. Feldmeier was in the water and was seized with cramps, and Byers went to his assistance. Feldmeier dragged Byers under the water in his struggles and both were drowned.

Locked in Each Other's Arms.

Their companion sat on the bank for a half hour after watching the place where they went down. Later William Bird of 3302 James street was walking along the railroad track and the small boy informed him of his friends' fate. Bird dived in the river and recovered the bodies, locked in each other's arms, in about 15 feet of water.

Although the local temperature failed to go higher than 87 degrees yesterday, the weather was uncomfortably warm and

AUTO WINS A THRILLING RACE WITH GRIM DEATH

Wounded Man Is Driven 20 Miles in 30 Minutes to the Allegheny General Hospital and His Life Is Saved.

Surgery and the automobile worked together yesterday to save the life of a human being. While a daring chauffeur drove his big touring car over the Butler plank road at breakneck speed in a thrilling race with death, a country doctor worked desperately to stanch the blood that flowed from a gaping wound in the throat of one of his neighbors.

From the little hamlet of Gibsonia near Bakerstown to the Allegheny General hospital, a distance of 20 miles, the automobile raced in 30 minutes. Up hill and down, at never lessening speed, rushed the machine, while the steady, deft hands of Dr. Joseph Price fought the battle of human skill against great odds. The victory is his, for the patient will recover.

Henry Bardover, aged 56, a resident of Gibsonia, tried to end his life by slashing his throat with a razor. Despondency is said to have prompted him to this act. Dr. Price was called in and did what he could hurriedly. George E. Fisher, one of Bardover's neighbors, went into the house and gave what assistance he could to the physician. Death was certain unless the wounded man could be taken at once to a hospital, was the verdict of Dr. Price.

Mr. Fisher owns a big automobile, and at his suggestion the bleeding man was placed in it and the race against death started. At 1:30 o'clock the Allegheny General hospital received a telephone message to prepare for the reception of a patient, and at 2 o'clock the auto stopped at the doors of the hospital. The quick work of Dr. Price immediately after the wound was inflicted prevented death from bleeding. During the exciting dash across country Dr. Price held his neighbor in his arms, and by this means allowed no aggravation of the wound from jolting.

Although Bardover is very weak from loss of blood, and shock, the hospital physicians are confident of his recovery. Dr. Price and Mr. Fisher returned to Gibsonia in the automobile.

PURE WATER A SUBTERFUGE

Hump Removal to Cost $5,000,000 More, if Bigelow Not Bluffing.

WANT VOTES TODAY

Hence Director's Diplomacy Is Exerted to Placate the South Side Councilmen.

SEMMELROCK IS IMPRESSED

Director Bigelow has never claimed ability as a speechmaker, but he proved yesterday to have the suave, diplomatic qualities which enable the possessor to sway public assemblages and persuade them to consent to projects which they started out to prevent. When the South Side councilmen, still under the Bigelow glamor, left the meeting in city hall yesterday, they had practically consented to favor buying the Monongahela Water Company's plant at a valuation of $5,000,000, nearly twice the amount of the capital stock.

It was admitted the Monongahela Water Company ought to have a big sinking fund, money which could be applied to the purchase of the plant; that the company has been paying out in stock dividends money which ought to have gone into that sinking fund; that the carrying out of Mr. Bigelow's suggestions will prevent the city from taking advantage of its breach of its contract with the city by the Monongahela Water Company and that the company has not carried out its charter stipulation that it must establish a sinking fund.

Different in the Morning.

When the meeting started, some of the South Side councilmen were animated with the desire to work for the best interests of the whole city; when the meeting was over they were put into the position of being willing to loot the city for the benefit of the South Side. Of course, they did not realize that they were brought to that pass. They will realize it this morning, after having slept over the matter, and Director Bigelow, it is predicted, may awake to the fact that the way to put the hump ordinance through is not to saddle a debt of $5,000,000 upon the city, but rather to deal fairly with the public, even the South Side councilmen.

Everybody knows that everything done yesterday was to help along the hump ordinance, which will come before the common branch of councils on second reading today. The object is to pass the hump ordinance finally, and to do this it is necessary to placate the South Side councilmen.

Pulling the wool over the eyes of the South Side councilmen was not the only phase of Director Bigelow's campaign to push the hump ordinance through councils without informing the public what the improvement will cost.

Carr Makes a Statment.

In carrying out this campaign he made the assertion yesterday that Henry C. Frick intends to build a $10,000,000 block on the property bounded by Fifth avenue and Sixth avenues, Grant street and Cherry alley, and that the taxes on that building would in a few years pay the whole cost of the hump improvement. Mr. Frick is on the ocean and will not return to Pittsburgh until next September. Perhaps Mr. Bigelow knew that, but he never stopped to think that W. A. Carr, Mr. Frick's financial man, is in Pittsburgh. Mr. Carr spiked Mr. Bigelow's gun yesterday in these words:

> I have just read the story in the papers. I know absolutely nothing about it. You can see it is all from Bigelow. It is like the story, you will remember, that Bigelow peddled before, when Mr. Frick's attitude toward the "hump" removal was being discussed. There is no detail in it. All that is published today has been published several times before, in slightly different form. Just what Bigelow gave out the story for now I do not know. It may be for political effect, but I cannot say that. Mr. Frick has never told me a word about the matter or about his plans for any improvements that he might make if the "hump" were removed. So far as I know, there have never been any plans prepared for such buildings as are mentioned, nor have any estimates of cost been made that I know of. Mr. Frick has had several talks with Bigelow about the "hump" removal, but I never heard that this statement was made by Mr. Frick to Bigelow in these talks. Beyond what I see in the papers I have no idea of Mr. Frick's plans about prospective improvements on the "hump," and as I have said before, this story all came from Bigelow. Mr. Frick sailed for Europe on the Kaiser Wilhelm today and will not return till September.

Councils' Power to Increase Debt.

Of course, it is possible the majority in councils, which is under control of Director Bigelow, may become "drunk with power" at the prospect held so alluringly before them. The director called attention to the fact that councils, without recourse to a vote of the people, can appropriate more than $8,000,000, which means, of course, that councils can appropriate, without consulting the people, $5,000,000 for the purchase of the Monongahela Water Company's plant and franchise. It is the general opinion, however, that the director can no more prevail on a majority of councils to appropriate $5,000,000 for the purchase than he could prevail on councils to appropriate $2,000,000 for the hump cut without a vote of the people.

About 23 councilmen were on hand yesterday when the conference between them, Mayor Hays, Director Bigelow and City Solicitor Rodgers was called to order. Mayor Hays was in the chair. The meeting lasted more than an hour and a half. Sometimes there was a good deal of confusion, several men trying to speak at once, but amid all the confusion Director Bigelow kept his adherents well in hand, so that at the end they, although in the minority, ultimately got the assemblage to consent to enter negotiations for the Monongahela Water Company's plant.

Ask a "Fair Price."

Mayor Hays explained the object of the meeting and read the letter received by him from the Monongahela Water Company, in which the company offered to accept a "fair price" for its property.

Councilman Louis H. Frederick asked if the Monongahela Water Company had not broken its contract with the city, which contract requires the company to charge the same water rates charged by the city. Mr. Bigelow tried to evade the question, but Frederick insisted that he answer it.

The director said that the company wanted to sell at a "fair price," and if the city wanted to buy it was not wise to begin by charging the company with breaking its contract.

In the several debates that ensued Mr. Frederick said the company refused to install water meters on the ground that the meter rates charged by the city would be ruinous to the company.

Dr. Weber said the company was earning 12 per cent.

City Solicitor Rodgers said the city would have the power and right to make the city water rents such that the Monongahela Water Company's earnings would be reduced to 4 or 5 per cent, a fair return for the money invested. He also remarked that if the company was not carrying out its contract, as alleged by Frederick, then he, as city solicitor, was perfectly willing, if directed by councils, to go into court and compel the company to grant meter rates to its consumers.

How to Reduce the Price.

Dr. Weber argued that it would be a good thing to enter suit. If the company based its price of more than $5,000,000 on its earning power, and that earning power was made so large by not carrying out the contract with the city, then by compelling it to live up to the contract the earning power would be reduced to 4 per cent, after which, the earning power being the basis of the sale price, the city could acquire the property at one-half of the price asked, $5,000,000.

Here was a chance for someone to introduce a resolution asking councils to direct the city solicitor to enter suit against the water company for a violation of the contract, but nobody thought of that way out, and Director Bigelow brought the subject back to the consideration of the question of opening the way for the acquisition of the company's property by direct negotiations. Mr. Bigelow was asked what he thought of the matter. He said the public thought condemnation proceedings resulted in securing property cheaper than by direct negotiations, but it was the experience of his department that direct negotiations were cheaper in the end.

What the City Might Show.

Nobody pointed out to him the fact that by beginning condemnation proceedings the city would be entitled to show that the company had not lived up to its contract; that it has not established a sinking fund, and that, by reason of these two facts, the purchase price ought to be materially reduced. If direct negotiations are begun, it was asserted, the city cannot show these facts tending to reduce the purchase price, but must take over the plant at its earning power. Director Bigelow himself said the earning power was the basis of a sale price; nevertheless, a resolution was adopted asking Solicitor Rodgers to draw up an ordinance to be presented to councils providing that negotiations for the purchase of the property be begun.

There were several interesting features of the meeting. John F. Semmelrock was accused by Councilman Raff of being "extremely sociable" with the Monongahela Water Company, for Semmelrock threw cold water on all assertions that the company had broken its contract and was earning more money than its charter allowed, and insisted that the city should buy out the water company.

Councilman Ruhlandt said he was formerly a stockholder in the company, owning 50 shares, and he had received in stock dividends 10 shares, the par value of which was $25, and the real earning value about $80.

What the Charter Provides.

The charter of the company plainly stipulates that all earnings over 8 per cent must go into the sinking fund, but even Ruhlandt's showing that the charter was not lived up to failed to bring out a plan to prove that matter in court, and thus compel the company to take what the court may consider a fair price. If direct negotiations are concluded, the fact that the company does not live up to its contract and does not carry out the provisions of its charter cannot be brought out to reduce the price of the plant, so it was declared.

It is true that some of the councilmen were assured that, while negotiations might be begun, the city need not buy unless the price was satisfactory, but the company will not set a price on its holdings unless it is pretty well understood that the city will buy at the valuation given. There are so many things that render it unlikely that councils will appropriate $5,000,000 for the company's plant, and Director Bigelow is known to be so opposed to paying such an exorbitant price that it is pretty well believed that, after the hump ordinance has gone through, the city administration will lose sight of the South Side water situation. There are too many other improvements close to the heart of Director Bigelow, and it is not believed that he will allow councils to appropriate $5,000,000 to acquire a water company on the South Side.

Mr. Semmelrock Is Impressed.

Mr. Semmelrock, who wants to buy out the company, was much impressed by one argument of Director Bigelow. Said the director:

"The South Side pays but one-ninth of the taxes of the city. The South Side has its free bridges; the city paid for them. The South Side has all its streets paved; the city paid for them. If the Monongahela Water Company is acquired, the city will pay the cost."

"Now, it seems to me," said Mr. Semmelrock, after the meeting, "that that is a good argument. If the city buys the Monongahela Water Company the city at large will pay for it, the cost to the taxpayer of the South Side being almost nothing. Therefore, what need we South Siders care what price the company gets?"

Controller Larkin gave out a statement in which he declared that the hump improvement, if completed, would be of great benefit to the city, and ought to be carried out at the expense of the taxpayers. He said the leveling of the hump would result in immense benefit to the property on the hump. He said he did not understand the opposition to the hump unless it represented the view of those who own property in the "congested" district. Mr. Larkin argued that, because the property in the "congested" district had increased 72 per cent in value in the past four years, therefore the taxpayers ought to do something at their expense to put money into the pockets of the property owners on the hump.

Common council will meet at 3 p. m. today to act on the hump ordinance. It will come up on second reading, and an effort will be made to suspend the rules and place it on final passage.

Protest Against Higher Rates.

Royal Arcanumites from Etna, Millvale, Evergreen, Aspinwall and Sharpsburg held a joint meeting in the rooms of Etna council, No. 281, last night and vigorously protested against the proposed increase of rates in the order. Grand Orator Gates of Pittsburgh was present and delivered a long oration in support of the increase. He was replied to by Attorney Robert Malone, Dr. W. B. Kroesen, William Weckbecker and J. E. Bretheroe with vigorous protests against the increased taxation.

NEW DIRECTORS ARE ELECTED

Equitable Trustees Select Men to Fill Vacancies, but Will Not Announce Names.

SCHIFF AND HIS CONSCIENCE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, July 11.—A sufficient number of directors to carry on the business of the Equitable Life Assurance society without, however, filling all the vacancies caused by resignations, were selected today at a meeting of the three trustees of the majority stock. The names will not be made public until after they have been presented to the board for formal election.

Much comment was excited by the publication in a morning paper of the testimony taken at the investigation of Superintendent Hendricks. Former Gov. Odell in an interview at Newburg stated that he had seen none of the evidence until its publication and offered important suggestions for remedial legislation at the present extra session of the legislature.

That the services of Second Vice President Gage E. Tarbell will be retained was announced by Chairman Paul Morton, who declined to discuss the disclosures in the Hendricks report.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 11.—Gov. Higgins said tonight he was still of the opinion that conditions did not warrant calling upon the legislature to investigate the affairs of the Equitable Life Assurance society. He still has full confidence in the ability of Superintendent Hendricks of the state department of insurance to probe the matter to the bottom and that the public will be fully satisfied with the outcome when the whole is concluded.

"We have set out to make a thorough investigation of this society," said the governor, "and we will get all of the facts. Nothing on my part will be left undone to probe the matter to the bottom in the interest of the policyholders."

The attention of the governor was also called to that portion of the published extracts of the testimony relative to the real estate transactions in which Senator Depew is alleged to have been interested. He said:

"Superintendent Hendricks did not touch, in his preliminary report, upon all the matters that have been subject to inquiry. He did not treat of any of the real estate transactions of the society, except such as related to the leases given by the elder Hyde to the several safe deposit companies. This matter will be fully covered in the final report."

NEW YORK, July 11.—Jacob H. Schiff today made the following statement concerning various matters recently published with his name:

"I cannot possibly take up and discuss for publication every statement with which my name becomes connected. When one has charge of large affairs one gets sometimes praise and sometimes censure, and the one must be taken with the other.

"I am endeavoring to lead a righteous life, always following the dictates of my conscience, which, after all, is man's proper and best judge, and if my acts have in any instance been misjudged, I shall trust to time for this to become corrected."

GRAFTERS MUST NOW STAND TRIAL

Milwaukee Grand Jury Indicts One Hundred and Five of Them for Bribery.

FORMER OFFICERS IN THE LIST

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

MILWAUKEE, July 11.—Sixty-seven indictments against 25 individuals, most of whom are former county officials, were handed down by the Milwaukee county grand jury late today, in the municipal court. Today's batch of true bills, added to the 38 returned 10 days ago, makes a total of 105 thus far, with the expectation that further probing will result in many more indictments being brought in later. Today's list contains 20 out of the 21 names returned in the last batch, there being but five new names not before reported. Following is the list of individuals for whom capiases have been issued:

Anthony F. Klefisch, committee clerk board of supervisors; Fred C. Schultz, newspaper reporter; J. M. Weisenthal, supervisor; Theodore Engle, plumber; Herman J. Fomrening, ex-assemblyman; Peter J. Kaufmann, saloonkeeper and former candidate for coroner; Peter J. Mead, former supervisor; Arthur S. Green, supervisor; Frank L. Fowle, supervisor; Fred G. Oefflein, former supervisor; Albert O. Bade, former supervisor; William C. Wagner, former supervisor; August Puls, former supervisor; Charles Dearfield, former supervisor; Gottlieb F. Reichert, supervisor; Herman Haasch, former supervisor; Benjamin Baden, supervisor; Frank Burkhart, former supervisor; John Armstrong, former supervisor; Fred Hartung, former supervisor and present assemblyman; John F. Dittmar, former supervisor; William H. O'Keefe, supervisor; Max Reynholdt, former supervisor.

Nearly all of the indictments charge bribery in the sum of $50, the amounts, it is alleged, having been paid to present or former county officials in connection with the awarding of county contracts for the erection of an addition to the county hospital several years ago.

Two Special Events at Luna.

The Church of the Holy Trinity held its mid-summer picnic and outing at Luna park yesterday, and notwithstanding the excessive heat of the day, there was a large gathering of members of the church, the Sabbath school and friends of the members. Two performances of the open air show were given for their benefit, and a basket luncheon was served in the grove at noon. Last evening the Pittsburgh Lyceum gave a dance in the pavilion at Luna park, and though a heavy storm passed over the city at the hour for assembling, the young people were nothing daunted, and an immense crowd gathered and danced the hours away.

STATE FUNERAL FOR MR. FULLER

Secretary of the Commonwealth Will Be Buried Tomorrow at Uniontown.

FAYETTE COURT ADJOURNS

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

UNIONTOWN, PA., July 11.—The funeral of the late Frank M. Fuller, secretary of the commonwealth, will take place Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the Fuller home in Fayette street, with services by Dr. A. S. Milholland of the First Presbyterian church. The interment will be in Oak Grove cemetery, Uniontown.

Maj. Lewis Beitler, deputy secretary of the commonwealth, arrived in Uniontown this morning to assist in the funeral arrangements and personally extend his sympathy to the family. Secretary Fuller called up his office in Harrisburg yesterday afternoon on the long distance telephone and was assured everything was in good shape and that he might remain at home in Uniontown until next week if he wished. Secretary Fuller assured Maj. Beitler that he was feeling well.

Maj. Beitler and the chief clerk and others worked in the office of the secretary at Harrisburg until 10:45 o'clock last night, the time when their chief died. Maj. Beitler was awakened at 12:30 a. m. and given a telegram telling of Secretary Fuller's death. He left on the first train.

The regular weekly session of court was called this morning in Uniontown but an immediate adjournment was taken out of respect to the memory of Secretary Fuller, who was a member of the Fayette County Bar association. Hon. A. D. Boyd, W. E. Crow and J. Q. Van Swearingen are a committee from the Bar association to confer with the family in regard to the funeral.

HARRISBURG, July 11.—(Special.)—The state department will be closed until after the funeral of Secretary Fuller at Uniontown on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. All the clerks spent most of today at the department, but only the most urgent business received any attention. Most of the time was spent in discussing the secretary's sudden death and recalling the many traits which made him popular with his subordinates and the general public.

The executive building is draped in honor of Secretary Fuller. State Factory Inspector Delaney will represent the governor's cabinet at the funeral.

Secretary Fuller's funeral, it is thought, will not interfere with the annual inspection of the troops of the Pennsylvania National Guard now in camp. It is part of the governor's official duty to attend those inspections and it is expected at the guard headquarters here that he will go to the camps as he intended before Mr. Fuller's death.

He is scheduled to leave Philadelphia with his staff tomorrow night for Perkasie, for the inspection of the First brigade on Thursday. The governor's party will leave Perkasie on Thursday night for Mt. Gretna, for the Third brigade will be inspected on Saturday. The governor is at Schwenksville and will go from there to Philadelphia tomorrow to join his staff.

BUFFALO UNABLE TO HANDLE CROWD

Elks Say Residents of Bison City Are Slow When It Comes to Entertainments.

W. W. M'CLELLAND MADE TYLER

SPECIAL TELEGRAM FROM

JOHN P. COWAN, Staff Correspondent.

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 11.—Western Pennsylvania captured two prizes at today's session of the grand lodge of the B. P. O. Elks. W. W. McClelland of Pittsburgh was re-elected grand tyler and John K. Tener of Charleroi will continue in the office of grand treasurer. There was practically no opposition to either candidate, and the result was celebrated tonight with a jubilee by the Buffalo club and the Western Pennsylvania lodges. R. W. Brown of Louisville, Ky., was elected grand exalted ruler.

Pittsburgh, however, will get little else beyond the plaudits of their brother Elks in all parts of the country. In the band contest held on the lake front everybody felt certain that Peter Dannhardt's No. 11 band would carry off the prize, but the adjudicators gave the awards to the National band of Mexico and the Fifty-fourth regiment band of Rochester. The Pittsburghers made a particularly [illegible] showing, and disappointment over the decision is embittered by the [illegible] prize winners were [illegible]. It is declared the Mexicans were [illegible] here at the expense of the local committee, and that the Rochester players were given a prize because the purse had been agreed upon to be kept within New York state.

There are other evidences that the Elks' reunion is too big for Buffalo. So far as the entertainment is concerned, the visitors have been obliged to provide their own amusement, except in one or two affairs given to the officers and ladies of the grand lodge. No arrangements were made for the accommodation of visiting representatives of the press, and Chief of Police Bull tonight appointed himself a press committee to provide newspaper men means of passing the lines in the parade.

Elks in no wise hesitate in calling Buffalo "slow." The characteristic southern hospitality of Baltimore at the reunion in 1903 and the open-hearted welcome of the Buckeye "Bills" of Cincinnati last year are recalled with sighs by those who find Buffalo overwhelmed by the immensity of her undertaking. Denver is leading the contest for next year's convention, and doubtless will succeed, but Atlantic City and Dallas, Tex., are maintaining an aggressive campaign.

In saying that Buffalo has failed to make good in the part of host and entertainer, it is still not to be understood that the visitors are not enjoying themselves. The Pittsburghers, with their hilarious brothers from the south and the west, lead in pranks, which gives the convention city the appearance of a carnival celebration. In front of the Genesee hotel this afternoon two score of foreigners and some American bricklayers were at work on a new building, when an Italian came along dragging a street piano.

An Allegheny Elk rode on top of the piano and two Salvation Army lassies with tambourines full of silver coin followed. A lot of other Allegheny county Elks joined the procession.

"Hello, Bill!" shouted the Elk on the piano to a crowd of hodcarriers and mortar mixers. "You fellows are not allowed to work today. Go home."

The foreigners looked perplexed for a moment and then asked for an explanation.

"I am a riding delegate," said the man on the piano, pitching his voice above the rattle of the hurdy-gurdy tune of "On Sunday Afternoon."

Finally the entire crowd threw down their tools. They stood for a moment discussing the strange turn things had taken, and then started home. An hour later the boss came around and recalled his tardy workmen.

"Allegheny county will turn out 1,000 strong in tomorrow's parade. Leading the 11 lodges will be the Pittsburgh Buffalo club, with Marshal Charles E. O'Donnell and a large contingent of mounted aids. Heading the delegation, which will be conspicuous also because it will march under the beautiful banner of Porto Rico lodge, will be the band of No. 11, directed by Drum Major Dixon.

The uniformed rank of No. 11 tonight held a dress parade and serenaded the grand lodge officers at the Iroquois. The column in double platoons swept up Main street just as the arches were being illuminated, and a bedlam of cheers greeted them at every turn.

Over 40,000 marchers will be in line tomorrow, and over 200,000 visitors are expected in the city. This will mark the climax of the reunion, and many Pittsburghers will go back home tomorrow night.

The following grand lodge officers were elected at the annual reunion of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks today:

Grand exalted ruler, Robert W. Brown, Louisville, Ky.

Grand esteemed leading knight, C. F. Tomlinson, Winston, N. C.

Grand esteemed loyal knight, Charles W. Kaufman, Hoboken, N. J.

Grand esteemed lecturing knight, Edward McLaughlin, Boston.

Grand secretary, Fred C. Robinson, Dubuque, Iowa.

Grand treasurer, John K. Tener, Charleroi, Pa.

Grand tyler, W. W. McClelland, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Grand trustee (long term), John D. O'Shea, Lynn, Mass.

Grand trustee (short term), Dr. W. H. Haviland, Butte, Mont.

All but Mr. Kaufman and Dr. Haviland were elected by acclamation. The only contest worthy of note was that for the office of short-term trustee. Cal L. Kingsley of Waterloo, Iowa, and Mayor Charles C. Schmidt of Wheeling, W. Va., opposed Dr. Haviland.

O'DONNELL IN A BAD WAY.

Suspect Who Was Shot While Running Is Likely to Die.

"Red" O'Donnell, the young McKeesporter who received a bullet in the hip from a Winchester rifle in the hands of County Detective Jeremiah Lutz of Braddock, two weeks ago, while running from the officer through the yards of the National Lumber Company at McKeesport, may not recover. An operation was performed at the McKeesport hospital yesterday, and O'Donnell's leg was cut off at the hip. Blood poisoning had set in. Physicians do not offer much hope for O'Donnell's recovery.

O'Donnell was one of five men who were chased from Braddock to McKeesport by Detective Lutz, who used a shifting engine to catch up with the crowd, the members of which are believed to know something about robberies committed in Braddock, when a wholesale liquor house was robbed.

TO HELP FEDERATION.

Four Allegheny Congregations Form an Anti-Graft Auxiliary Organization.

Congregations of the North End United Presbyterian, Watson Memorial Presbyterian and Mt. Zion Lutheran churches of Allegheny united in service with the North End Methodist Episcopal church last night and formed an organization to act as an auxiliary to the Allegheny Federation of Churches in the crusade against vice and graft.

Addresses were made by the Rev. Father McCabe and Attorney Harvey Henderson. Officers were then elected as follows: President, J. B. Bringer; vice president, J. H. Chatham; secretary, W. H. Yerkes, and treasurer, Enoch James.

West Homestead's Paving Bonds.

West Homestead council held a meeting yesterday at which a $70,000 issue of bonds was sold to W. R. Todd & Co., of Cincinnati, at par, interest and $100 premium. There was only one other bid, from W. J. Hayes & Co., of Cleveland at par, less attorney's expenses. The bonds are 30-year serial, at 4 per cent interest which did not make them attractive. It was decided to have all arrangements made for grading and paving all of the streets of the borough at once.

Felicitous in Use of Names.

Stephen Ratajerak, whom the neighbors, for euphony's sake, call "Steve" Reilly, was arrested yesterday by Special Policemen McAfee and Smith on the charge of obtaining goods by false pretense from the store of the Jones & Laughlin Steel Co. It is alleged that he got $13.85 worth of merchandise by posing as Adolph Riebel, $10.75 worth by pretending to be Howard Lester and that he was trying to get a pair of shoes again as Lester.

GORDON AND BELL HAVE DISAGREED

District Attorney Refuses to Entertain Suits for Conspiracy on Present Evidence.

BOTH SIDES WRITE LETTERS

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU
Press Building.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., July 11.

Ex-Judge Gordon, legal adviser of Mayor Weaver in his fight against the Republican organization, and District Attorney John C. Bell have disagreed over the matter of bringing a charge of conspiracy against Frank H. Caven, John W. Hill and certain others unnamed. Judge Gordon wanted to bring a charge of conspiracy, in addition to forgery and falsifying records, against Caven, Hill and others. The district attorney refused, saying that under the law such an indictment based on the testimony before the committing magistrate could not be drawn up. He told Mr. Gordon that if such charges are brought before a magistrate and returned to him he would prosecute the cases to the best of his ability. Mr. Bell's letter on the subject is in part as follows:

"I am of the opinion, though it is by no means clear, that upon the magistrate's [illegible] the two cases against Hill I [illegible] draw another bill against him containing additional counts, which will include all other specific instances of apparent forgery, the evidence in support of which is being submitted to me.

"With reference to a general conspiracy indictment against certain persons other than Hill and Caven, as suggested by you, I have carefully gone over the magistrate's returns and the testimony in the Caven and Hill cases respectively, and in my judgment such an indictment against persons other than Caven and Hill, not arrested and held for court, cannot under the law be drawn, based upon any of these returns and the testimony relating thereto."

Judge Gordon and Mayor Weaver reply in part as follows:

"Permit me to say again, as I have already said to you on several occasions, that while the bills of indictment against Caven and Hill are important, they are unimportant compared with the necessity for bringing to justice the real and potent criminals who have profited most by and who have been the source and inspiration of the gross and far-reaching conspiracy by which the city of Philadelphia has been for years robbed and disgraced. As to the Caven and Hill cases I have already given you my views as to the formation of the bills. This is a small matter, your assistant clerk with a few suggestions has been able to draft the bills.

"You are also fully in possession of the evidence touching the particularly technical charges on which Hill and Caven were arrested. On these two points, upon which alone you indicate a desire to welcome my aid, I have fully exhausted my ability to give you such aid.

"Your letter of this morning shows that you will not adopt the course open to you and that you will not take the initiative as to any prosecutions, but will confine yourself merely to a presentation of such charges as may be returned by a committing magistrate, and that unless some official other than yourself, or some public spirited citizen shall cause further arrests to be made and prosecutions to be instituted, the principal criminals shall go unmolested."

Mayor Weaver in a postscript approves the letter of Judge Gordon.

At 1 o'clock this morning District Attorney Bell issued a lengthy statement, quoting many decisions, in support of his position that it was impossible to frame a general conspiracy charge on the evidence submitted by Judge Gordon. Mr. Bell decided to make the supplemental statement after he learned that the Wanamaker newspapers had agreed to make capital out of an interview he gave earlier. A list of about 25 questions was submitted to Mr. Bell by the reporters of the "syndicate" newspapers, all of which he promptly answered.

WILD WITH ITCHING SCALP

Hair Fell Out and Was Rapidly Becoming Bald—Tried Many Remedies Without Success For Two Years—Hair Restored and Speedily

CURED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"I was greatly annoyed by dandruff for two years. It was so bad that when I combed my hair large flakes would fall from the comb. The itching of the scalp at times was almost unbearable. Then my hair began to fall out, starting at the temples. The hair grew thin and I was rapidly becoming bald. Nothing I used gave any relief until I began to use Cuticura Soap and Ointment. The first week I used them they relieved me of the itching scalp, and after six months' constant use the dandruff disappeared, my hair grew over the bald spots, and my scalp became clean and healthy.

"For the first two months I shampooed my head three times a week with warm water and Cuticura Soap and applied Cuticura Ointment after each shampoo. I used five Boxes of Ointment and seven cakes of Soap. (signed) Thos. Clement, 123 Mechanic St., Camden, N. J., May 12, 1905."

L. A. 300 BOLTS THE CONVENTION

FOLLOWS HOT DISCUSSION

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CLEVELAND, July 11.—After two hours' heated discussion, relating to its articles of amalgamation, by virtue of which it was hoped to merge two of the most powerful glass workers' unions in the country, the joint convention of the Amalgamated Window Glass Workers of America and local assembly No. 300, Knights of Labor, experienced today what is believed to be a fatal disruption.

President A. L. Faulkner of the Amalgamated Window Glass Workers was president of the convention, which met behind carefully guarded doors. Simon Burns, president of the glass workers' branch of the Knights of Labor, headed the delegation, most of the interests of which are centered around Pittsburgh.

At the critical point in the afternoon session, following debate over the articles of agreement, pandemonium broke loose. A score of delegates sprang to their feet crying for the floor, others called for various parliamentary rulings, none of which was heard by the chairman, and in the melee some one rushed to the front of the hall, leaped upon the rostrum, and brushing aside Chairman Faulkner, tore from the wall a slogan which read, "Welcome, Local Assembly No. 300."

Broke Up the Meeting.

Half of the delegates arose and filed from the hall, and in a few minutes the chamber was empty, save for the presence of a few of the officers of the Amalgamated.

President Burns was at the head of the bolting delegation of the Knights of Labor. With him were 80 delegates. There were about 220 on the opposing side. Faulkner had just been elected permanent chairman of the convention. Articles of agreement which had been adopted May 16 at Pittsburgh at a session of the officers of the Window Workers Local Assembly No. 300, Knights of Labor, and the Amalgamated Window Glass Workers of America, were under discussion. It had been voted to adopt them clause by clause. The report consisted of 15 articles, and it was placed upon its reading. After adopting article 1, which provided that both parties to the compact should send delegates to the Cleveland convention, the second article was taken up. Its provision was to the effect that the Amalgamated Window Glass Workers of America, its officers and members, agreed that both parties should enjoy equal voting power in the convention on any and all questions that might arise, and that no business should be transacted unless the representatives of both parties should be seated with equal voting power on all questions.

Where the Trouble Started.

Up to this juncture both associations retained their respective officers, it being provided in another section of the agreement that not until the amalgamation be completed would the officers to the joint body be chosen. President Burns, therefore, held the scepter over his portion of the convention, although Chairman Faulkner occupied a seat on the rostrum and had been elected to the office permanently. The nominations were not to be made until October. These matters were under discussion when trouble began to brew.

President Burns listened to the discussion. Nearly every one present was stripped of his coat. Someone made a speech declaring that according to the clause just quoted the local assembly No. 300, Knights of Labor, had no right to a voting representation of 80 delegates. Burns made a warm speech in which he insisted that he had a right to the representation agreed to at the conference at Pittsburgh recently, which, he insisted, permitted his delegation to take action in every question that might arise. It was acclaimed by the other faction that it was never intended that the Knights of Labor branch should have equal voting power in the convention with the Amalgamated.

Men arose to their feet while Chairman Faulkner tried in vain to pacify them. Small squabbles started in every corner of the big hall, and in spite of the thumping of the gavel bedlam reigned. Some of the delegates became heated in their arguments and the lie was frequently passed.

President Burns took his delegation to the Forest City house, where he declared his intention of returning to Pittsburgh tomorrow morning. He said he was through with the Amalgamation for all time. President Faulkner of the Amalgamated declared after the session that he would listen to a conciliation and if arrangements could possibly be reached with President Burns he would welcome the branch of the Knights of Labor into tomorrow's session.

INTERESTS ARE MERGED.

Two Glass Manufacturers Associations Unite, Controlling 80 Per Cent of Independent Output.

CLEVELAND, O., July 11.—By the merging of the Interstate Window Glass Manufacturers' association with the National Window Glass Manufacturers' association at the convention which closed here today, it is estimated that not less than 80 per cent of the independent output is controlled by the organization. A wage committee was appointed to meet with the glass workers and settle a scale of wages. This, it is expected by the workers, may be lower than it was last year, owing to labor conditions.

Green Glass Men In Session.

TERRE HAUTE, IND., July 11.—The convention of the Green Glass Bottle Blowers' association was occupied today with reports and addresses on the condition of the organization. The association has been in existence 19 years, and has had no strike. The old officers are reelected. There will probably be no change in the wage scale.

STEAMER SINKS YACHT.

Boat Turns Turtle After Collision in New York Harbor and All on Board Are Drowned.

NEW YORK, July 11.—Police headquarters received information tonight that an unknown yacht had been sunk off Dobbs Ferry by a steamer flying the Swedish flag. It was learned that about 9 p. m. a small yacht, brilliantly illuminated, anchored off a dock at Dobbs Ferry and hardly stopped when the steamer ran into it. The lights on both went out and the yacht turned turtle and sank.

Fifteen minutes later three men from the steamer rowed in and asked if any survivors had come ashore from the sunken yacht. Upon learning that none had come ashore the three men pulled their boat upon the beach and took a train for New York. The Dobbs Ferry pilot reported that several persons were drowned.

DESPERATE CONFLICT WITH MOONSHINERS

MAYKING, KY., July 11.—A desperate battle between moonshiners and Federal officers was fought in the Elkhorn district today. On a lonely mountain path the moonshiners under the leadership of Calvin Centers, opened fire on the officers. Centers was killed and Henry Adams was fatally wounded. A man named Tucker received a dangerous wound.

Property Owners Fear Oil.

Fifty property owners in Center street, Braddock, have petitioned the authorities of that borough to have the tanks of the Brilliant Light and Oil Company removed from the thickly settled part of the town. A fire last week threatened to communicate to the oil, but was prevented by hard work. The petition was referred to the public safety committee of the council and the borough solicitor.

Is Getting Tired of Being Arrested.

Detective George Cole yesterday went to Canton to look at a negro arrested there who was suspected of being Silas Carter, who shot Policeman Sheehy on June 19, 1902, in Wylie avenue. The suspect proved to be Robert Swigren of Minneapolis, and who has before this been arrested for Carter. Once he was taken in custody at Wheeling and another time at DuBois. The negro asked Detective Cole to give him a letter stating he was not the murder suspect, so as to prevent future arrests.

Bigelow, defaulting president of the First National Bank, made a partial report today. FIVE DEAD; MANY SUFFER people kept to the shady side of the streets till late in the afternoon. From 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. the sun blazed and a hot day similar to Monday was looked for, but early in the afternoon the sky clouded over and a 14-mile-an-hour wind helped to keep the mercury below 90.

After 1 p. m. the mercury went down rapidly, dropping 7 degrees inside one hour. The temperature then started to rise again, but after reaching the 85-degree mark started to fall again and at 8 o'clock last night it was stationary at 76 degrees. At the same hour the humidity was 75 per cent, and the night was very sultry. In the city a light rain, measuring .04 of an inch, fell.

Storm in the Evening.

In the Upper Ohio and Monongahela valleys several local storms occurred last evening. Around Braddock and in the Turtle Creek valley the storm was particularly severe, with heavy rain, strong winds and much lightning. The electric storm affected the light service in Braddock. It cut out the lighting system at the Carnegie library and the behavior of the wires there was such that the borough fire department was called out to stop what appeared to be a certain fire. With the passing of the storm the danger passed and in a couple of hours the library was lighted again.

In the low-lying districts of Braddock cellars and first floors of houses were flooded, and some damage was done. The rains washed out the tracks of the Monongahela division of the Pittsburgh Railways Company in several places, and the lightning put out of service a considerable number of the cars.

Turtle Creek Rose Rapidly.

Turtle creek rose rapidly and there were evidences of a cloudburst farther up the stream, but as communication was impossible, owing to telephone lines being damaged, this fact could not be established. Several houses occupied by Italians, about three miles above Turtle Creek borough, were struck by lightning.

Another local storm visited the upper Ohio valley after 5 p. m., and in Bellevue, Avalon and the towns along the river there was a heavy downpour of rain which continued for about 20 minutes. Woods Run, Allegheny, was also visited by a heavy rainstorm, but there was no lightning or thunder.

Thunderstorms are predicted for this section for today and tomorrow by the weather man at Washington.

RUSSIAN OFFICIAL IS ASSASSINATED

Prefect of Police at Moscow Is Shot Down by a Petitioner.

DEADLY RIOTS AT WARSAW

[Associated Press Cable to The Gazette.]

MOSCOW, July 11.—Count Shuvaloff, prefect of police here and formerly attached to the ministry of the interior, was assassinated this morning while receiving petitions. One of the petitioners drew a revolver and fired five times at the perfect who fell dead. The assassin was arrested. He was dressed as a peasant and has not been identified. He was recently arrested as a political suspect, but escaped from the police station before his examination.

The assassin waited in the ante room of the prefecture till the other petitioners had been received, then entering the audience room he advanced toward Count Shuvaloff firing five shots at close range. The bullets passed through the body of the prefect.

A great crowd gathered in front of the house of Count Shuvaloff and made a demonstration to show its indignation and sorrow at the assassination of the prefect, who was very popular. Grand Duchess Elizabeth, widow of Grand Duke Sergius (assassinated in Moscow February 17 last) attended the first requium for Count Shuvaloff tonight.

The assassination of Count Shuvaloff is considered to be a purely political crime as the count was not yet 40 years old, and was regarded as being of the best type of Russian official. He came from one of the most famous families in Russia. The count was a son of Count Peter Shuvaloff, the statesman who represented Russia at the Berlin conference, was formerly colonel of the Guard regiment, known as the St. Petersburg, and was one of Emperor Nicholas' personal friends. As prefect of Odessa when he succeeded Gen. Zelenoi, who was extremely severe, Count Shuvaloff earned the esteem of all by his firm yet lenient course, making himself particularly popular with the students.

RUSSIAN ADMIRAL FEARS ANOTHER MUTINY ON SHIP

KUSTENJI, ROUMANIA, July 11.—The Russian squadron seems to be delayed here owing to the fear that another mutiny will break out should the vessels put to sea. The fact that 55 sailors from the Kniaz Potemkine who surrendered have been imprisoned on board the different vessels of the squadron awaiting trial for rebellion has caused intense indignation among the crews, and as a consequence there are fears of another mutiny.

The Russian government will commence regular proceedings for the extradition of the crew of the Kniaz Potemkine as ordinary criminals. In the diplomatic exchanges on the subject the Russian foreign office pointed out that Roumania's promise to give the mutineers an asylum was made before Roumania had been apprised of the other crimes committed by the Russian sailors. Besides, the foreign office reminded Roumania that, according to the Roumanian law, deserters are extraditable.

RE-APPROVE SCALE.

Theatrical Stage Employes' Alliance Sustains New York Wage Rate.

The second day's session of the national convention of Theatrical Stage Employes' alliance was held yesterday morning and afternoon in Duquesne garden. The most important business transacted was the re-approval of the wage scale now in force in New York city. One year ago theatrical owners in that city decided to reduce wages. This was opposed by the local union who found support in the national body approving the scale.

During the day resolutions were offered by the local unions of Atlanta, Ga., Philadelphia and Binghamton, N. Y., registering complaints against theater owners in those places. These resolutions will not be acted upon until later in the convention. Following the report of the president and the appointment of several committees, the convention adjourned until this morning. Last evening the visiting delegates were entertained by a trolley ride given by the local union.

Only Correct Way to Go to the Orphans Picnic.

EVERYTHING IS READY FOR ORPHAN'S BENEFIT

Two Days' Picnic in Calhoun Park Is Expected to Be a Record Breaker. Prizes for Babies.

All that is needed to make the picnic in Calhoun park today and tomorrow for the benefit of St. Paul's orphan asylum a success, is ideal weather. Not in the history of orphans' picnics has there been so much activity, and the indications last night were that the mark set by Chairman McSwigan and Bishop Canevin would be reached. Because of an increase in the number of inmates, $25,000 will be necessary to maintain the institution at Idlewood during the coming year. It is the wish of Bishop Canevin that at least this much be realized from the two days at Calhoun park.

At midnight Chairman McSwigan and many of the committeemen and women reached Pittsburgh after a hard day at the park. Under the direction of the women the booths were erected and decorated, and this morning they will be stocked with a choice collection of everything necessary to make any kind of a picnic a success. Nothing has been left undone, and with excellent car service, which General Superintendent John Murphy has promised, if a record-breaking crowd fails to attend Calhoun park today and tomorrow, there will be much regret among those who labor so hard to make these annual outings a success.

William J. Brennen was a busy man yesterday. From early morning until late last night he was receiving prizes for the baby show, and if there is any youngster who leaves Calhoun park without a prize, Chairman Brennen says it will not be his fault. J. G. Lauer contributed a wagonload of toys yesterday. The 60 men selected by Mr. Brennen have all promised to furnish their prizes. The automobile which is to be raffled off the two days of the picnic paraded over the downtown streets yesterday. It attracted much attention. It will be drawn for tomorrow night. George G. McSwigan, who will have charge of the sale of tickets for this, decided yesterday to charge but 50 cents a chance, and a fair maiden, with automobile custume, will aid in disposing of the pasteboards.

"Beheading of St. Andrew," is the title of a beautiful painting presented to St. Paul's orphan asylum by Col. Louis T. Brown. Yesterday the painting was accepted on behalf of the asylum by Chairman McSwigan and the Rev. Father Lynch. It was placed on exhibition at Vilsack's Fifth avenue store, and will later find a permanent place in the art gallery of St. Paul's asylum.

The gates at Calhoun park will open at 10 a. m. and close at 10 p. m., the two days of the picnic.

WOMEN HELD FOR COURT.

Many Informations Made by McKeesport Firms Against a Clever Trio of Shoplifters.

Accused of shoplifting from six different stores in McKeesport, Mrs. Dora Woods, Mrs. Mary Woods and Mrs. James Sullivan of Buena Vista, received hearings last night before Alderman Mansfield of McKeesport, and were held for court in $1,800 bail each, or $300 on each information. After the hearing the women were locked up in separate police stations.

The women were arrested late Monday afternoon and were held on informations sworn out by J. K. Skelly & Co., the D. L. Clark Company, Myer & Fisher, the Philadelphia Merchandise Company, the J. D. O'Neil Company and the F. J. Rengensberger Shoe Company. The women tried to secure bail last night, but were unsuccessful. Bail will be arranged for the Sullivan woman today.

It was said that shortly before the hearing last night Mrs. Sullivan confessed to the detective who arrested her that the Woods women had been shoplifters for years and that only four months ago they had initiated her into the business. Detective Anderson and Constable Moore on Monday secured a large quantity of stolen goods from the homes of the three women. They are miners' wives and never dressed in any of the finery they acquired through shoplifting.

TRADE HOUSES FOR LOTS.

Two Properties in Kennett Square Given for Fourteen West View Sites.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Patterson Coal and Supply Company yesterday, approval was given to a deal involving the trade of two six-room houses in Kennett square, Oakland, for 14 lots at West View. The deal was made with George Evans, the Pittsburgh contractor. The values of each set of properties was figured at $9,450.

The Kennett square houses are Nos. 3204 and 3206, each having a frontage of 22 feet. Of the West View lots 13 are 35x125 and the other one 40x125. The company intends to dispose of them. It came into the possession of the lots in the Dean plan in Kennet square as the result of some financial complications involving the builders.

POSNER TESTS WIFE'S LOVE AND IS QUICKLY ARRESTED

In an effort to test her love for him, Harry Posner of Braddock, who has been married only a few weeks, told his wife last Sunday that he had another wife living in Boston, Mass. The wife informed her brother, Morris Fogel of Homestead, that her husband was a bigamist, and yesterday he was arrested. When taken before Justice Giles Posner stated he was only testing his wife's love and denied he had another wife. Mrs. Posner told Justice Giles she believed her husband was fooling and was willing to live with him if he had a dozen wives. He was discharged.

FIRE THREATENS THREE BIG ALLEGHENY PLANTS

Nelson Morris & Co.'s Meat Storage House Is Damaged to the Extent of $15,000.

The plant of Nelson Morris & Co., beef packers, at the corner of Anderson and Lacock streets, Allegheny, was damaged by fire yesterday afternoon to the extent of about $15,000. The blaze started in one of the smokehouses on the second floor, and it looked for a time as though a serious conflagration would result. Assistant Fire Chief Peter Schatzman called out three districts and nine companies responded.

The building is a new one, and is said to be one of the best examples of slow-combustion structure in the city. The fire department did excellent work, and in less than an hour the blaze was extinguished. The flames were confined to the second floor, and the greatest loss was caused by water.

Adjoining the Morris building is the big storage house of Swift & Co., and directly across Anderson street is Armour's big establishment. In the three buildings is stored more than $1,000,000 worth of stock. The fire never got out of the Morris plant, but the firemen took precautions against its spread to Swift's.

Henry Myers, local manager for Nelson Morris & Co., was unable to give a very close estimate of the loss, but it will be less than $15,000, fully covered by insurance.

HONOR JOHN HAY.

Hebrew Congregations Unite in Memorial Services and Adopt Fitting Resolutions of Sympathy.

Upwards of 1,500 people crowded into the Washington street synagogue last night to join in the union memorial service of Hebrew congregations in honor of the late secretary of state, John Hay.

Rabbi Aaron M. Ashinsky delivered eulogistic addresses in both English and Yiddish. In accord with the custom of orthodox Hebrew worship, there was no music. Following the addresses resolutions of sympathy were passed, a copy of which was ordered forwarded to the family of the deceased. The resolutions in part were as follows:

> The United Hebrew congregations of Pittsburgh have received with profound grief the sad intelligence of the death of the Hon. John Hay, secretary of state. Cut down in the midst of the onerous duties of his high and responsible office, he has left a record of great and manifold and fruitful labors to perpetuate his memory. His unwavering efforts on behalf of downtrodden and oppressed humanity in general, and the Jewish race in particular, his indomitable energy, his rich scholarship, his versatility of talent and variety of attainment, and his prudence and tact in the administration of his office had made him one of the foremost and strongest champions of human rights; and, be it therefore
> Resolved, That while we reverently and devoutly submit to the decree of an all-wise Providence, we desire to express our deep sensibility of the irreparable loss sustained by the United States in the death of one who adorned it with everlasting glory through his leadership in international problems of great importance to mankind and universal civilization.

DISORDERLY SCENE ENDS IN OFFICIALS' ARREST

Riot in Newport (Ky.) Jail Over Caleb Powers Brings Out Numberous Warrants.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CINCINNATI, O., July 11.—Jailer Ploeger and three other men are out on bail after arrest by order of Mayor Helmbold of Newport, Ky. Policemen Flynn and Raticum are out on bond, having been arrested charged with resisting United States officers in the discharge of their duty, and the mayor himself was today bound over to appear in court Thursday and make answer to charges of resisting United States officers.

These were among the results of an attempt of some of the friends of Caleb Powers, former secretary of state of Kentucky, under indictment for complicity in the murder of William Goebel, to furnish the cell which the prisoner was to occupy with more comforts than usually fell to the lot of inmates of the Newport jail.

During the fight which followed when the jailer refused to obey the mayor's orders to place Powers in a cell other than that prepared for him, the mayor's front teeth were knocked out, revolvers were drawn and almost the entire police force of Newport was called into action.

HAMILTON'S

was examining some of the exquisite

in our salesrooms one day last week. She asked the price of a very beautiful piano. The salesman displayed the price tag — marked $385.00 — whereupon the lady exclaimed, "Why," what's the matter with the piano? Is it damaged in any way?"

"Not at all," replied the salesman, "What makes you ask that question? Do you see anything wrong with it?"

"No, indeed," said the lady. "It's a beauty but I can't understand how you can afford to ask so little money for such a fine piano."

The salesman explained that the Hamilton system of selling pianos—briefly stated—meant the very lowest possible prices for the very highest possible quality. The Hamilton system will save you money if you buy your piano here.

The 67 citizens which a Milwaukee grand jury indicted for boodling yesterday, added to the 38 she indicted the other day, makes 105. Maybe when the courts get through with these gentlemen we shall see that something other than beer made Milwaukee famous.

Plans have been approved by the board of estimate in New York city for an elaborate approach to the Brooklyn bridge which will do away with much of the crowding by those seeking to reach Brooklyn during the "rush" hours. The structure will cost $3,000,000 and require three years to build. In the meantime access to the bridge will be more difficult than ever on account of the building operations.

As a bearer of disease, the common house fly is infinitely more dangerous than any kind of mosquito, if articles which are going the rounds of medical journals are to be believed. The unrelenting warfare waged on him by every good housewife has infinitely more important results than cleanliness and comfort in the light of the following stern indictments brought against him by one editor: "Who can deny that he sits upon a barrel of swill, until the fancy takes him to try a sugar-bowl or baby's nose? He causes more disease in a week than aniline dyes in a month. He is more dangerous than formaldehyde in milk. Charity covers a multitude of sins. It does not cover flies. These ranging and obscene animals should die."

Whatever accusations his enemies may bring against him, John Alexander Dowie, third of the Elijah family, cannot be accused of dodging his debts, and that's a mighty good recommendation even for a man who is holding down a prophet's job. When the builder of Zion and the promoter of its "infant industries" got into deep water a year and a half ago, and was swooped down on by a horde of creditors, he put up a solid front and declared that if they would give him reasonable time he would pay every dollar he owed, with interest. That consummation was effected yesterday, when Dowie wiped out the last penny of the $400,000 of his indebtedness and all bankruptcy proceedings against him were dropped. As to where he got his money—well, that's probably another story, and so long as he has kept his word to his creditors it's safe to surmise they are not particularly interested in it.

The curtain drops on the miserable farce of the Kniaz Potemkine's "revolution," only to rise again on the tragedy of Count Shouvaloff's assassination at Moscow. From St. Petersburg comes the news of the arrest of Gen. Stoessel, the questionable hero of Port Arthur; from Odessa a report that $20,000,000 of property was laid waste by the mutineers; from Russian Poland that a peasant uprising has taken place on the very estate of the czar; and from all parts of the empire tales of riot, incendiarism, butchery of innocent men and women, and disaffection of soldiers and sailors. The sun of the Romanoff dynasty seems to be setting in bloody eclipse. Nothing more aptly describes the woeful condition of Russia at this hour than the words applied to the kigdom of Israel centuries ago: "The whole head is sick and the whole heart faint. From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises and putrifying sores; they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment. Your country is desolate; your cities are burned with fire."

Having found out through Mr. Bristow what troubles Panama in the matter of its transportation facilities, the president is next determined to ascertain what ails Venezuela that she should maintain such crusty relations with the United States. To this end Mr. Roosevelt has appointed Judge William J. Calhoun of Chicago, special commissioner to have a heart to heart talk with the Venezuelans. But his mission does not end there. He is also to find out what arrangements the impecunious and debt-ridden South American republic has made with foreign nations, possibly to the detriment of the interests of the United States. Furthermore, he is commissioned to ascertain what grounds there are for the complaint of American companies, seeking to do business in Venezuela, against its high-handed methods in dealing with them. Judge Calhoun has a delicate piece of work cut out for him, especially when it comes to scraping intimacy with such a bellicose individual as President Castro. But his diplomacy, probably, will not go to the extent of tolerating anything like evasion or indifference. There are good reasons to believe our square and strenuous president is getting mighty tired of certain things in the Venezuelan program, and that unless he gets straight answers to what he desires to know, President Castro will be given a taste of the kind of diplomacy that made John Hay famous in his connection with the Rasuli affair.

Too Many Generalities.

Mr. Bigelow is again indulging in glittering generalities on the hump cutting proposition instead of telling the people specifically what they demand to know. He says Mr. Frick will put up a $10,000,000 building on the old cathedral site and a magnificent hotel on his other Grant street frontage just as soon as the hump is cut. Unfortunately Mr. Frick sailed for Europe yesterday before Mr. Bigelow made his statement. However, Mr. Carr, Mr. Frick's right hand man, says he knows nothing of the projected buildings, and it would seem that he would know if anything of this character were contemplated. Mr. Bigelow must do better than this if he wishes the people to believe that these improvements are contingent upon the cutting of the hump under the present proposed plan. Similar statements were made before the last hump election and the people showed how much they believed by the way they voted.

Council meets today and Director Bigelow promises to exhibit what waivers he has. Before the people are asked to vote for the issue of the hump bonds Mr. Bigelow should have complete and unequivocal waivers of damages from all the abutting property owners. They should contain no qualifying clauses whatever, but should release the city from all claims under all conditions. The Frick waiver is unsatisfactory in that it requires that the work be complete in 16 months. Experience with public works improvements of this magnitude in Pittsburgh leads to the belief that the hump, if cut at all, will not be down in 16 months. It is a tremendous task and there is every reason to believe that it will not be completed in the time specified. What the people want and what they should be shown is how the property owners outside of the district directly affected are to be benefited by the cut. There are thousands who cannot see why they should be called on to pay for an improvement which is strictly local and who contend that the abutting property should pay the cost. And it is these property owners who will be heard from on the day of the bond election.

Shifting the War Clouds.

The Moroccan war clouds have been shoved into the wings, thanks, we are told, to the conservative diplomacy of Premier Rouvier, who, nevertheless, has brought France out of the imbroglio without a scratch to her beloved honor. M. Rouvier has dispatched a message to the sultan of Morocco, formally pledging France to take part in an international conference to settle the matters in dispute with Germany, and thus the incident is presumably closed. No doubt the successful ending of these negotiations is a fine feather in the cap of the new premier, but if the truth must be told, those Moroccan war clouds were a little too ostentatiously hung over the European stage to impress the pit very seriously. The sort that is being rigged up so quietly in the Scandinavian peninsula looks a good deal more like the real thing, especially since Norway has offered her vacant throne to Prince Charles of Denmark, a son-in-law of King Edward. History has abundantly demonstrated there is nothing like a little favoritism where a throne is concerned, to breed a right good row among royal relations.

Sweat Shop Horrors.

In his somewhat sensational address before the Pittsburgh Ministerial association Monday Deputy Factory Inspector O'Donnell revealed facts concerning the conditions existing in the sweat shops of Pittsburgh that should enlist the attention not only of the clergymen but of all good citizens. The war against the immoral and pestilential sweat shop in the cities of America has been waged with great success during the past few years, but it is evident that the evil is only partially checked. The laws in most of the states are stringent and would be effective, perhaps, if they were only enforced. But greed is so cunning and villainy so persistent that only the most exacting vigilance on the part of those charged with the enforcement of the law will prevent the spread of the horrible conditions which, according to Mr. O'Donnell, exist in some of the dens in this city and in Allegheny. That young children should be confined in foul-smelling rooms and at a tender age made the slaves of health-destroying employment is a source of disease, immorality and future expense for the state. A large class of foreign immigration to our cities gives an almost unending supply from which the sweat shop draws its strength. These poor wretches are ignorant and morally insensible. That they themselves know little else than the most sordid and evil conditions in nowise lessens the horror of the situation. By their coming and their occupancy of the sweat shops plague spots are created that endanger the safety and welfare of the entire community. These workshops of the vicious labor thief become loathsome breeding places of almost every species of crime in the calendar.

This fact was clearly brought out by Mr. O'Donnell's talk to the preachers. The immorality that thrives and the bestial shame in which women are plunged through the influence of these places are enough to cause their prompt suppression even if they were not violating the labor laws. Evidently, if Mr. O'Donnell is to be believed, Pittsburgh needs to take immediate and active steps toward forcible reformation of these evil places, aside from whatever campaign of moral suasion the ministers may be led to undertake.

Crop Prospects Are Favorable.

The government crop report for July is in many respects the most important of the year, because sufficient progress has been made to permit a reasonable estimate of acreage and yield. The returns published this morning will go far toward reassuring the business world, which recognizes the importance to the whole country of prosperous conditions on the farm. Corn is the greatest money crop of the United States, and it is, therefore, gratifying to learn that the acreage this year is 2,080,000 acres larger than last year and the condition is a shade better. The indications, therefore, are for the largest yield ever harvested, and while the critical period is still ahead of the crop, the increased acreage and average condition furnish a large margin for possible deterioration during the season of hot winds and early frost.

The prospects for wheat are also excellent. There was a slight decline in the condition of winter wheat during the past month, but it still remained nearly two points above the ten-year average. This crop is nearly all harvested and the yield will closely approximate 425,000,000 bushels. Spring wheat conditions also declined during the month, but is above the ten-year average, and inasmuch as the acreage is larger, the yield this year will be in excess of that of last year, provided no calamity occurs during the ensuing few weeks. Although the prospects are for an abundant yield, the farmer seems to be assured of a good price, because the amount of wheat from last year's crop remaining in farmers' hands is the smallest reported at this season for years.

Kentucky and Caleb Powers.

The latest developments in the case of Caleb Powers again show that the Kentucky authorities are less concerned about securing justice than about holding on to their victim as long as they can, and letting him feel their rancor while they still have a chance. It looked as if they might show their wisdom, better late than never, when the attorney general decided to surrender Mr. Powers into the custody of the United States marshal. But the disgraceful occurrences at the Newport jail, where the mayor of the city precipitated a riot by his determination to have Mr. Powers locked up with common criminals, indicate that the attorney general of the state has a monopoly of the valuable commodity known as common sense. However, the United States marshal will no doubt be able to cope with the situation, and Mr. Powers is reasonably certain of a fair trial at last, while it is to be hoped that he will no longer be treated as a criminal and herded with criminals, but given decent lodging and humane consideration.

This whole Goebel-Powers business from first to last, and last even more than first, has been a blot upon the fair fame of Kentucky as black as that which the Dreyfus case brought upon France. It would be going too far to forecast the decision of the federal court, but it is reasonable to expect that Mr. Powers will be acquitted. The evidence connecting him with the murder of Gov.-elect Goebel was of the flimsiest and most tenuous sort, and only partisan rancor, thirsting for revenge, could have found the accused man guilty. But even if he had been guilty, such procedures as those which were employed to railroad him to the gallows savor of persecution rather than prosecution. We speak scornfully of inquisitions and assassinations, yet the record of Caleb Powers' trials smacks of both these medieval institutions. That such things could be in our land of enlightenment and liberty, under the Constitution and the stars and stripes, should lead thoughtful men to reflect. Kentucky justice has seemingly degenerated into such a farce that even its victims laugh.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean declares that Seattle resembles Chicago in many "striking particulars." It will be recalled that Chicago is especially long on "striking particulars."

In view of the weather hereabouts those wrangling Allegheny officials who invited each other to go to a warmer place were evidently joking.

Perhaps the sea serpents are all too busy assorting Russian naval junk to pay any attention to our seaside resorts this summer.

We infer from the way Broker Price is talking about those Holmes stealings that he considers himself an innocent bystander.

It is easily transparent that the glass workers are going to have a harmonious session in Cleveland.

A race war in New York and a duel in Kentucky go to prove how really versatile this country is.

Digging down a hump in the dark as to specifications is quite as bad as buying a pig in a poke.

At any rate, there always seems something new the matter with Kansas.

QUIET OBSERVATIONS

By ERASMUS WILSON.

How are you making out this summer? Is the weather hot enough for you? Do the rains come to suit you?

Possibly your vacation is the one thing you have in mind, if you have not gotten it off of your mind already.

This vacation business has grown to be a big thing, a mighty big thing, and a thing that is worth while. But like many other good things it can be run into the ground, so to speak, and its usefulness marred, or even destroyed.

The fact of the matter is that a great many become vacation mad. As a rule they don't understand the object of vacations, consequently get no benefit from them. Instead of going away to rest and recuperate, they go somewhere to have a good time, and usually select a place where there is the most confusion and excitement. When they come home they are in worse condition physically, financially, and sometimes morally, than when they went away.

It is pretty safe to say that these either don't need a rest, or don't know what rest is.

The sort of vacations that tired people need is something, almost anything, that will afford them a change of living for a week or two.

It is the monotony of business life that kills, rather than the amount of work done. Doing the same thing over day after day, going back and forth from home the same route, meeting the same faces both at home and at the place of business and having the same sort of talk, robs life of much of its interest, even to the extent of causing some to feel that it is not worth living.

It is the interest we take in life that makes it worth living, and not the dollars and cents we are enabled to sink down in our pockets.

If we can manage to inject a little variety into our ways of living we can have rest spells right along, which is better than bunching them all into one.

To go to the country for two weeks is a bore to most people, even to those who were born and reared there. But a visit for a day or two is so enjoyable and so helpful that it can be repeated three or four times a year with profit.

A day or two now and then is much better for all concerned than a week or two, unless conditions are particularly satisfactory.

You think you would like to go back to the old home for a solid month and just enjoy it as you think you used to, and to live over the days which now seem to have been so pleasant.

Have you ever tried it? If so, were you not greatly disappointed? Didn't you get your fill of it in two or three days?

Your dreams of comfort sitting in the shade of the old apple tree were rudely dispelled upon finding that the old tree was there no more. Or if, perchance, it was still there, didn't you find that the rest beneath its wide-spreading branches was greatly marred by the presence of flies, ants, and other pests that enjoy shady places?

These were there in the good old days of which you had been thinking, but you had forgotten about them, remembering only that which was most enjoyable.

What a blessing that we can so soon forget the disagreeable things in our lives, remembering only those that are pleasant to recall. Were it no so the old home, and the scenes of our early life, would not be very pleasant to think about.

It is possible that you have resolved never to go back to the old home again, at least not on a vacation of a week or two.

Merely going to the country for a while does not constitute a vacation, unless you are agreeably entertained while there, find much that is interesting and can realize that you are being rested and benefited.

No more does coming from the country to the city constitute a profitable vacation, unless the change of conditions is restful and altogether agreeable.

City people find walking on country roads, across fields, and through woods so tiresome that they soon begin to long for smooth and solid pavements; but not sooner than the country people begin to long for dirt roads, clods and rough paths, when in the city.

Visits to either city or country are not very enjoyable after the novelty of the changed conditions has passed away.

It is different when the object of such visits is business. In this case novelty cuts no figure, nor does romance, or recollections of former times, add anything to business trips.

But then, business is business, and pleasure is pleasure, and the two do not, as a rule, readily combine. Not that business is not pleasant, nor that pleasure may not be profitable, but when on pleasure bent, it is important that you leave business behind.

Store keepers, market people and tradesmen, generally, do not welcome the vacation season with much hilarity. They say that many of their customers begin the accumulation of vacation funds by buying their eatables and wearables on "tick," and while away they spend all of their ready money, so that when they return they haven't anything with which to pay their old bills, nor with which to buy for their daily needs.

This is particularly true of those who go on vacations to make shows of themselves. To see these at the seashore you would think they had money to burn, as the saying goes. Surely such as these get but little benefit and little satisfaction out of their vacations.

It is highly essential to health, and to the enjoyment of life, to break away from work occasionally in order to allow tired muscles and nerves to rest, even for a day or two. If working people of all classes fully realized this there would be fewer breakdowns, men and women would age more slowly, and their lives would not only be more enjoyable, but more profitable to their families, to society and to the world.

Take vacations by all means, but take them rationally as to times and seasons, as well as to the manner of spending them, keeping rest and recreation in view as the main object.

No Czar in Russia.

Odessa—"self-devoted to a blaze of dreadful sacrifice"—is a beacon. The revolutionists and mutineers who have secured the upper hand in the southern port may be defeated; the revolt of Libau may be put down; Poland may be reduced to order; but the struggle for liberty cannot end until liberty is attained. At last in Russia there is evidence of concerted action among the opponents of autocracy. Since the "red Sunday," last Jaunary, the revolutionary parties have been working as never before. The czar's paltering promises of reform have been withdrawn once too often. There is no czar in Russia. Nicholas is but a mouthpiece which different factions struggle with alternate success to employ. It cannot be long before the disaffection which has been manifested so startlingly in the navy will appear in the army.—Public Opinion.

History Repeats Itself.

"The airholes were small and obstructed. * * * It was the summer. * * * They expostulated. * * * they entreated. * * * The guards threatened. * * * The door was instantly shut and locked upon them. * * * They cried for mercy. * * * The answer was that nothing could be done without the Nabob's orders. * * * Mad with despair, * * * they trampled each other down, * * * fought for places at the window; * * * their agonies, * * * frantic struggles. * * * The tumult died away in low gaspings and moanings."

You may think this is an impressionistic picture of the New York subway in the summer rush hours, but it is not. It is from Macaulay's description of the Black Hole of Calcutta.—New York World.

TALKED OF IN GOTHAM

By FRANK A. PARKER.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, July 11.—Mrs. Henry C. Potter's "Block Beautiful" between Eighty-seventh and Eighty-eighth streets on the boulevard, which has just been laid out, is attracting much attention, not only from the residents in that vicinity, but from passers-by as well.

Mrs. Potter, wife of Bishop Potter, owns considerable property in that vicinity, and from the first she has taken a deep interest in the plans for beautifying the small parks through the center of the avenue, which were torn up when the subway was built. Mrs. Potter has cordially co-operated with the Society for the Development of Boulevards, but in spite of the efforts of property owners on the upper West Side it has been urged that to plant trees and make them grow in such shallow soil would be manifestly impossible. With many others Mrs. Potter thought otherwise, and she determined to put the matter to the test. She placed the matter in the hands of a landscape architect, who drew up plans for the artistic arrangement of trees and shrubbery. Siebrecht & Sons were given the contract for preparing the soil and plants. As the trees have just been planted, they are not yet leafed out, but the bushes are in full leaf and flower and make a good showing. At each end and in the center there have been planted poplar trees about eight feet high, four in the center and three at each end. About these are grouped in artistic arrangement 12 California privets, 12 American thorns, 20 purple barberries, two hydrangeas, 20 yucca filamenteras and 12 golden elders.

Chicago Holds Up New York.

Because of a difference of $51.10 between the finance department and the R. H. Hood Company of Chicago, business and railroad traffic has been set at naught by the tying-up of the Ninth street bridge across the Gowanus canal, Brooklyn, for 10 days. Hood had two flatboats towed to the bridge on July 1. The bascules were raised high in the air and anchored and then the motors, worth thousands of dollars, for which the city had already paid him, were removed from the anchorages of the bridge. No attempt was made by Bridge Commissioner Best or his engineers to intercept the purpose of crippling the bridge, and for 10 days the two arms have hung high in the air, completely tying up the highway across the canal. The dispute arose out of the way in which Hood reset the curbing and repaved the street at the Union street bridge in February last. The bill was but $51.10.

"Little Tim" Buys Country Home.

From the Bowery to the Berkshires is the trip "Little Tim" Sullivan intends to take. Croker has Wantage, Murphy has his place down at Good Ground, so Sullivan must be represented in the country districts. It is for the honor of the Bowery and the name, and both are very dear to "Little Tim." The result is that he has purchased a place of 62 acres, known as the Daly estate, in the Berkshires, between Pittsfield and Lenox. There is a fine old house on the place, and, while part of the ground is under cultivation, yet there is forest enough to make the owner feel himself a real landed gentleman. "Little Tim" intends to move up in a short time just to show the people in that part of the world how fine the vice president of the New York board of aldermen can be.

Troubles of Tenement Owner.

It took 10 policemen to move two families out of Cohen's tenements in Goerck street today. Firm in their intention not to move the tenants are practically holding Landlord Samuel Cohen prisoner in his own flat, while they go through the house doing as they like to the apartments and stationary fixtures. The dispossess warrants are the climax to the war between Cohen and his tenants. He raised the rents. They refused to pay. He tried to get them out, but 25 families laughed at him. Then came a trip to court and an order from the magistrate directing the tenants to pay the advance rent or hold themselves ready to be dispossessed today.

Law Steps Between Friends.

Magistrate Cornell in Morrisania court today found himself in the predicament of being forced to hold a friend for trial, charged with violating the speed ordinance. The defendant was Henry B. Anderson, a lawyer. He was arrested on Central bridge by Policeman Vanderpool, who charged him with going 20 miles an hour when the law allows only four miles over the bridge. Anderson said he did not violate the speed law. He said he has made 4,000 miles in this city and has never even been warned. "I have known Policeman Vanderpool for 10 years," the court said. "He is one of the most careful men on the force. He had no interest in this case. I am sorry to hold a friend, but I am forced to hold you in $200 for trial in special sessions."

Catholics on Pilgrimage to Rome.

One hundred Roman Catholics from all parts of the country left in a party on the Cunard line Slavonia for an American Catholic pilgrimage to Rome and tour of Europe. The spiritual director of the party is the Rt. Rev. Benjamin F. Keiley, bishop of Savannah, Ga. Prior to embarking a special pilgrimage mass was celebrated by Bishop Keiley at the church of St. Francis Xavier. The party will make its first stop at Gibraltar and then proceed to Naples and Rome, where it is expected special favors will be extended to the pilgrimage.

Keeps the Boys Out of Mischief.

"Amateur Sunday baseball, properly conducted, ought to be encouraged," declared Magistrate Barlow in the West Side court today in the case of a man charged with violation of the Sabbath law, in holding a baseball game in Equitable park, at Sixty-seventh street and West End avenue. "Young men," continued the magistrate, "whether playing the game or watching it, are better off on Sunday than if they were loafing about the streets or drinking in the back rooms of saloons. Clean sport in the open air is always a fine thing—on Sunday as well as any other day."

A Logical Conclusion.

Little Barry went to school last Monday for the first time. On his return he informed his mother, with great impressiveness: "Mamma, that teacher has a cinch. She writes 'cat' once on the blackboard and us boys writes it twenty times in our books."—Harper's Weekly.

HOT WEATHER TALES

About the only relief a fellow gets these broiling days, if he is strictly on the water wagon is to slake his thirst at as many soda fountains as he can conveniently reach. Why then, should there be dropped into this small cup of comfort the dismal scriptural texts that some well-meant but mistaken souls have taken to hanging up around the city?

What, for instance, could be more disconcerting to an honest chap, and more woefully suggestive on a hot day when he is just about lifting a cool phosphate to his lips, than to find suddenly staring at him from the wall the announcement that "The Wages of Sin Is Death!" Or when in the cool of the evening, with consciousness of having lived a good, square life through the day and having intentionally done nothing to wrong either himself or his fellows, should a man who seeks a modest bite in a nice, respectable restaurant be warned from over his hat-peg that "The Way of the Transgressor Is Hard."

Anyway, if texts of Scripture must be hung in public places to serve some possible useful end, why couldn't a more tactful selection be made—something more in harmony with the character of the places in which they are posted; even more in keeping with the tint of the wall paper? Down in a 15-cent restaurant on Diamond street, for instance, where the background is blue, somebody has hung up a text in green letters which declares "Ye Cannot Serve God and Mammon." Its dollars to one of the doughnuts that are being passed over the counter, not one man out of a hundred who eats in that place has the faintest idea what Mammon is. One of them got curious about it the other day, and turning to a companion inquired:

"Say Bill, what the deuce does Mammon mean, anyhow?"

To which Bill, after a puzzled glance at the card, replied indifferently:

"Search me. I suppose its some of dat dago lingo de priests talk."

* * *

By the way, wouldn't it be a just retribution on the devotional souls who impose these texts on a sweltering public if they were made to peruse a series of daily scriptural readings in this weather, culled somewhat after this fashion:

MONDAY.

And they gathered it every morning, every man according to his eating; and when the sun waxed hot, it melted.—Exodus xvi.:21.

TUESDAY.

Tomorrow, by that time the sun be hot, ye shall have help.—I. Sam. xi.:9.

WEDNESDAY.

Therefore he commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was wont to be heated.—Daniel iii.:19.

THURSDAY.

They are all hot as an oven.—Hosea vii.:7.

FRIDAY.

My skin is black upon me, and my bones are burned with heat.—Job xxx.:30.

SATURDAY.

The elements shall melt with fervent heat.—II. Peter iii.:10.

SUNDAY.

In their heat I will make their feasts.—Jer. li.:39.

While on the subject of scripture it is an easy cry to the fact that this is the harvest time for juvenile venders of lemonade, who are trying to add their mites to various church enterprises that thrive in hot weather. If they sold anything stronger than the sweet, lukewarm mixture they offer, the average benevolent citizen who is daily compelled to run their gauntlet would find himself unsteady on his pins before he had passed five squares.

Out in the Avalon-Bellevue district there are at least two new churches going up, possibly more, and the fact of their erection is prominently called to the attention of passersby by childish trebles on nearly every corner.

"Please, mister, buy a glass from me; it's for the church fund," is the usual appeal.

And they are sharp financiers, too, these little aid societies, as one man found to his cost the other day. He had only five squares to walk to reach his car line, but in every square he struck a lemonade stand, and in one block two in vociferous rivalry. The first half cost him the modest sum of 2 cents, but the beverage sadly lacked a little lemon and a trifle of ice.

The second stand he sought to escape by throwing down a penny as toll, but its boy proprietor insisted on his tarrying long enough to drink at least half a glass—his money's worth. It was pretty good ice water at that, and the man was rather glad he stopped, but when in the next block he was pleadingly accosted by the little daughter of a neighbor, whose mother sat smiling on the veranda, there was manifestly no escape. Here the beverage was as sour as any one could desire, and its price had gone up a cent, but when the drinker put down a dime in payment he was answered by a little cry of dismay.

"Oh, I've only taken in 3 cents, and I can't make change."

Mamma didn't offer to help out the financial tangle, so the patron, making a virtue of necessity, patted the little girl benignantly on the head and told her she might keep the dime. It was, in fact, his last coin. Nothing remained in his pocket to give the conductor a $5 bill.

Happily he was saved from this dilemma, for at the next corner but one from the car, he ran across an old friend who was tacking up an elaborate sign over his little boy's stand.

"Oh, here comes Mr. C., papa; he'll buy a glass sure!" shouted the youngster.

Of course he did, after the lad's father had kindly broken the bill. When he finally got on the car and took inventory he found he was "in" about four pints of sadly mixed drinks, "out" just 18 cents, and had $4 95 in small change, including a plugged nickel.

Where Opinions Differ.

"Bring on your tainted money," exclaimed Senator-elect Brandegee at the Yale alumni meeting. "We will purify it with Yale spirit and consecrate it to the blessed mission of educating noble men to uphold the institutions of our glorious country." The next day it was announced that John D. Rockefeller had given $1,000,000 to Yale. Almost simultaneously President Roosevelt was saying at Harvard: "Every man of great wealth who runs his business with cynical contempt for those prohibitions of the law, which by hired cunning he can escape or evade, is a menace to our community; and the community is not to be excused if it does not develop a spirit which actively frowns on and discountenances him.—Public Opinion.

Primitive Light Houses.

The lighthouses on the Hawaiian islands are sadly deficient and of a primitive character—the light on the customs house at Honolulu, for instance, being a lantern with an old red rag tied around it. This is one of the most important lights on the coast of the islands. The present lighthouse system was handed down from the monarchy, and was retained by the provisional government. The treasury department has been importuned to establish several modern lighthouses at various points where they are badly needed.—Mariners' Advocate.

PICKED UP IN LOBBIES.

Hoo-Hoos Will See Real Timber.

Members of the Concatenated Order of Hoo-Hoo, the social and fraternal organization of the lumbermen of this country, are looking forward anxiously to the annual meeting of the Hoo-Hoos in Portland next month. Pittsburgh will furnish a goodly representation at the gathering, and it will probably be necessary to run a special train, or at least two special cars, from Pittsburgh to accommodate the members in this district. E. R. Conaway, who passed through Pittsburgh last evening on the Pennsylvania limited to his home in Chicago, said that there is a wide interest in the coming session and that it bids fair to eclipse any convention yet held by the organization. This large attendance will be largely due to the desire of many of the eastern lumbermen to see the vast lumbering interests and fields of the northwest. Particular attention will be paid to the kinds and methods of production of timber in the big forests, and the side trips from the convention will include, besides visits to the Lewis and Clark exposition, in which the timber phase of the northwest is especially in evidence, visits to the forests and big mill plants.

Will Address Philadelphians.

Robert J. Cochrane, the Allegheny contractor, who is president of the Pennsylvania state association of master builders, went to Philadelphia on the Pennsylvania flyer last evening. He will meet with a number of building trades leaders in that city today, and tonight he will address an assemblage of these men to enlist their interest in forming a local organization to become identified with the state association. Up to this time the Philadelphia contractors, builders and other building trades men have withheld from associating themselves with the state body. Mr. Cochrane said that he has never seen a summer of such activity in building as is now on in Pittsburgh. Usually there is a small amount of contracting done so late in the season, but because of labor troubles and for other causes early in the year, many big building projects were held off. These are now being taken up. The result will be that there will be construction until late in the autumn.

Light Cherry Crop from New York.

That there will be a light cherry crop from the state of New York was made evident last evening when J. C. Kane, a large produce dealer of Buffalo, received a telegram just as he was leaving the Union station for home. The telegram stated that reports from the cherry-producing sections were to the effect that the cherry crop had been damaged greatly by heavy rains and hail storms. Pittsburgh dealers were expecting a very heavy supply of cherries from New York, but this supply will probably be cut far short of the amount desired.

People Going and Coming.

E. A. Ford, passenger traffic manager, and Col. Samuel Moody, general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania lines west, left for Chicago last night on the Pennsylvania limited to attend the monthly meeting of the Central Passenger association today. Upon his return Col. Moody will go at once to the national guard encampment at Erie.

Elliott Rodgers, general counsel for the Pittsburgh Coal Company, came into the city on the St. Louis limited last evening from Bedford, Pa., where he and his family are spending the summer. Judge Rodgers expects to return to Bedford Saturday.

Capt. Samuel S. Brown, Pittsburgh's veteran riverman and horseman, went to New York last night to consult his physician. He will return Saturday.

Frank C. Smith, proprietor of the Colonial hotel, went to Atlantic City last night.

Where Ships Go Down.

Some of the most terrible tragedies in marine annals have occurred on Cape Race, the southeastern extremity of Newfoundland. An official chart recently issued shows the disasters there during the last 40 years. Together with some not inscribed thereon they represent a total of 94 complete wrecks of ocean-going vessels—steamers and sailers—involving a loss of about 2,000 lives and $80,000,000 in hulls and cargoes. Ships which stranded and afterward escaped are not included. Last year alone eight steamers and two sailing vessels came to grief there, 85 persons perished, and a property loss of $2,000,000 was involved.—Mariners' Advocate.

WILL LEARN OF ASPHALT CASE

President Roosevelt Appoints a Commissioner to Investigate Venezuelan Trouble.

SENATOR KNOX AT OYSTER BAY

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

OYSTER BAY, July 11.—Instead of adopting "excessive measures which will be continued for a considerable period," as the late Secretary Hay told Venezuela on April 20 would be done, if that country did not at once arbitrate the asphalt case, President Roosevelt today appointed W. J. Calhoun of Chicago, a special commissioner to Venezuela to go over all the disputed points once more.

The president's secretary explained that the commissioner would not touch upon the recent Loomis-Bowen controversy, which the president regards as a closed incident.

Mr. Calhoun was a special commissioner in Cuba for President McKinley and has also been on the interstate commerce commission. Although the season at Venezuela is at its worst, Mr. Calhoun will leave at once for that country. He has been given no limit as to the time in which he must submit his report. President Roosevelt relies upon Mr. Calhoun to clear the air in Venezuelan affairs, so that the United States cannot suffer another halt in its Venezuelan policy.

Senator Philander C. Knox arrived at Oyster Bay this evening and will spend the night at Sagamore Hill. The senator's visit was arranged many weeks ago. He was met at the station by Kermit, Quentin and Archie Roosevelt. Mr. Knox declined to say anything as to the object of his call on the president. He will leave by the early morning express.

The president and his secretary received today the medals struck in commemoration of Mr. Roosevelt's inauguration. They bear the head of Roosevelt on one side and an American eagle on the other. On the portrait of the president is the motto: "Aequum cuique," which is presumably the best Latin for "A Square Deal."

Arrangements practically have been completed for the presentation to the president on Thursday next of Baron Rosen, the new Russian ambassador. Ambassador Rosen will be accompanied from Washington to Oyster Bay by Assistant Secretary of State Herbert H. D. Peirce, instead of Acting Secretary Adee, as was proposed at first. It is expected the exchanges between the president and the ambassador when the latter presents his credentials, will be important and significant.

ELBOW BREAKS A RIB.

Boy Escapes Fruit Dealer, but Injures Pennsylvania Railroad Man.

Robert S. Porter, chief clerk in the office of the secretary of the Pennsylvania lines west, is suffering from a broken rib. As he was passing one of the sidewalk fruit stands in Liberty avenue, near the Union station, a boy darted away from the stand to escape the dealer's thrust at him for stealing fruit. The boy had his arm out and he ran his elbow directly into Mr. Porter's side, breaking one of the floating ribs just below the heart.

Mr. Porter felt a little pain, but paid no particular attention to it. While he was at his desk next day he was suddenly seized with pain, and immediately consulted a surgeon. It was found that the rib had been fractured. Mr. Porter has been confined to his home several days, but will soon be able to resume his duties.

PREPARING TO BUILD.

Bids Are Asked for New Federal Building at McKeesport.

After two years' delay the government has started to advertise for bids for the construction of the new federal building for McKeesport. The bids will be opened at Washington by Supervising Architect J. K. Taylor on August 16.

Postmaster Campbell says there is $75,000 left for the construction out of $110,000 appropriated for site and building. He believes the building will be started by September 1 and completed in about a year.

Got the Worst of the Argument.

"Mike" Dixon of Forbes street was found last night at Second avenue and Brady street, with three large cuts on his head and several severe contusions on his face. He was taken to the Oakland police station, where his wounds were dressed and he was locked up. He told the sergeant that he had had an argument with a bartender in a saloon and was thrown out, after being struck on the head with a club.

Made Noose Out of Suspenders.

Locked up in a cell in No. 7 police station on a charge of drunkenness, John Lane of No. 36½ South Eleventh street, attempted yesterday to strangle himself to death with his suspenders. He made a noose out of them and fastened it high enough to suspend himself. When he was found by Special Officer Robert S. Gray he had nearly succeeded in accomplishing his purpose.

Bellevue's Council Meets.

At a meeting of Bellevue council last night the contract for grading and paving Bryant avenue was awarded to Samuel Baumgardner for $4,006. Council also accepted the resignation of Policeman Fred Roberts and elected Charles Fisher, chief of the Volunteer Fire Company, as Roberts' successor.

Mother Says Boy is Incorrigible.

Frank Roberts, a newsboy, of No. 513 Union avenue, Allegheny, was locked up in Central station last night and will be turned over to the juvenile court today. The lad's mother says he is incorrigible and that he has run away from the Boys' Industrial home in Oakdale twice.

PETER HERMES' AUTO ACTS BAD AGAIN

Select Councilman Peter Hermes' automobile again misbehaved itself yesterday and ran away with its chauffeur, finally smashing its own front on a tree at Ashley and Luna streets. About 5 o'clock Charles Kuntz, the Hermes chauffeur, discovered that the steering gear had become disarranged and stopped to make repairs. While he was at work the restive steed started to run on its own accord. Down Ashley street it rushed, the steering gear no more useful than the bit between the teeth of a runaway horse. Chauffeur Kuntz worked manfully to turn off the power, and it is said that he had succeeded a bit, as a speed of but eight miles an hour was being made when the tree was struck. He jumped just in time. No one happened to be in the way of the frightened machine.

CAT EATS EVIDENCE; BUTCHERS GO FREE

Whether it is because the official police cat of the South Side station does not approve of the Sunday laws or merely has a weakness for sausage, may never develop, but the fact remains that E. Schardon and C. W. Shrope, Mt. Oliver butchers, are very grateful to the feline who played such a prominent part during their hearing yesterday morning. They had been arrested on a charge of violating the Sunday law on information of a special officer who avows they desecrated the day by selling him sausage. When the butchers were led up to the bar of justice there was a skirmish about the station for the evidence, which disclosed the fact that the official police cat had violated her trust to the detriment of the law by devouring the evidence. The butchers were discharged. The cat was held.

Bankruptcy Proceedings Dismissed and Creditors Get Money in Full With Interest.

CHICAGO, July 11.—John Alexander Dowie today had all bankruptcy proceedings against him dismissed in the United States district court by Judge S. H. Bathea.

The petition in bankruptcy originally made by the H. B. Smith Machine Company was annulled upon the recommendation of Referee in Bankruptcy Sidney C. Eastman. According to Dowie's attorneys all of the claims mentioned in the original petition, amounting to something like $400,000, have been substantially paid off with interest.

THREE CHILDREN IN MISERY.

Mentally Deficient, Father Dead, Mother Gone and Grandmother Incapable.

James, William and Samuel Humphreys, 4, 6 and 8 years old, respectively, clad in rags and filthy and deficient mentally, were brought to the county detention rooms at the jail last night by Mrs. Cowan, one of the probation officers of the juvenile court. They were found by an Episcopal minister in a house in Ridge street, Thirteenth ward.

Their father is dead, their mother has abandoned them and they were in charge of their grandmother, who has neither the strength nor the means to care for them properly. They will be taken to the home for the feeble-minded at Polk, today.

Feud Ends With Fatal Result.

CINCINNATI, July 11.—George Ritchey, a farmer, surrendered to Sheriff Allphin of Boone county, at Hebron, Ky., today, and is held for killing William Smith with a knife and probably mortally wounding John Warner, Smith's father-in-law. The tragedy was the culmination of a feud.

SCOTT'S TRAIN SMASHES ALL WESTERN RECORDS

It Travels from Los Angeles to Chicago in Less Than Forty-Eight Hours.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, July 11.—With every car blackened by a delirious record-breaking run from Los Angeles to Chicago, the Walter Scott special on the Santa Fe railroad arrived here at 11:54 a. m., having beaten all previous records by hours, as well as bettering the special train's own exacting schedule three hours.

The best previous time for this run was made by the Alexander Peacock special in 1900, in a "race against death," but the record of this train by the performance consummated today is beaten by seven hours and 55 minutes. Extraordinary time was made eastward from Dodge City, Kas., where the train arrived 35 minutes late last night at 9:31 o'clock.

Eliminating stops, or "dead" time, which aggregated 59 minutes, the special made the run in 43 hours and 55 minutes, or an average for the entire distance of 2,244½ miles, of 51.1 miles an hour. The fastest time of the run was made between Chillicothe, Ill., and Coal City, Ill., a distance of 71 miles, which was covered at the rate of 65½ miles an hour.

TRAINS FOR GUARDSMEN.

Advance Details Go to Erie Tonight and Full Regiments Tomorrow.

The Pittsburgh regiments of the national guard of Pennsylvania will leave this evening and tomorrow evening for the annual encampment at Erie. This evening's delegation will be the advance detail of the Fifth, Tenth and Fourteenth regiments and Battery B. These men will occupy two special trains over the Erie & Pittsburgh division of the Pennsylvania lines west, leaving the Union station at 10 o'clock, city time.

The outgoing of the guardsmen tomorrow evening will be a larger event. It will be the regular movement of the Pittsburgh district troops. There will be six special trains, the first leaving over the Erie & Pittsburgh division from the Union station at 9 o'clock, city time, and the others following at close intervals. The Fifth and Tenth regiments will each occupy two trains, while the Fourteenth regiment and Battery B will each occupy one train.

Smith Under a Double Load.

An odd prisoner was plain John Smith, a frowzy-headed and not overly clean chap, who was placed behind the bars at the Penn avenue police station last night. Policeman E. J. Schiveley came across the man in Penn avenue. Smith was trying to navigate under a load of fruit and a bushel basket of old junk, consisting of cigar butts, broken glass, wire, corset laces, rope, pretzels and pieces of candles. The fruit was invisible, but the policeman judged from its effects on Smith's powers of locomotion, that it was a load of peaches he was staggering under.

NEED OF SCHOOLS IS PLAINLY TOLD

MANY SUGGESTIONS OFFERED

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

READING, July 11.—Over 1,000 educators from all parts of the state convened here today at the State Educational association convention in the Academy of Music.

Addresses of welcome were delivered by E. R. Gerber, mayor of Reading; E. Edwards, J. Edward Wanner, president of the school board of Reading, and the Hon. Henry Houck, deputy state superintendent of public instruction.

Gov. Pennypacker was scheduled to speak this evening, but was compelled to send his regrets.

Dr. Samuel Andrews, president of the association and superintendent of schools in Pittsburgh, delivered his annual address.

A believer in letting well enough alone Mr. Andrews said he was opposed to going to the legislature for more law, as a rule. There was one point he wanted the legislative committee of the association to be instructed in. That was to present a bill to the next legislature changing the number of school directors from an even to an odd number. This would prevent deadlocks which had done so much to injure the schools. His suggestion was to reduce the number from 6 to 5 and to elect one director each year for a five year term.

In this connection he included in the needs of the schools a higher standard of qualifications for school directors. Many able, patriotic men are serving as directors, but there are others who think they have done their duty when they let the schools to the lowest bidder. He referred to some of the strange and foolish things school boards do, among them forbidding teachers to go to any entertainment except of the church variety, forbidding them to marry, and in one case forbidding them to eat pie. It rested with the people and if they persisted in electing incompetent directors they could expect incompetent teachers and poor schools.

Mr. Andrews spoke at some length on the necessity of a retirement fund for teachers, using the Carnegie pension endowment for college teachers as an argument. He made a number of recommendations, among them being:

Closer realization and utilization of the advantages afforded by the present system rather than hasty legislation which may not cure the ills existing, but may produce others not now known.

More rigid enforcement of existing laws for the betterment of the present teaching force.

More practical education as compared with the merely theoretical.

More manual training which is educational rather than mechanical. More laboratories rather than more shops.

School boards should consist of an odd number instead of an even number as at present, with a decided preference for five.

Higher qualifications for school directors.

The zealous demand for the establishment of a teachers' retirement fund.

The Death Roll.

Mrs. Harry W. Sellers.

Mrs. Mary B. Sellers, the wife of Harry W. Sellers, died yesterday morning at her home in Bailey avenue, South Side. She had not enjoyed robust health of late, and her demise was not unexpected. Mrs. Sellers was a native of Carlisle, Pa., the daughter of the late William D. and Frances Smith Fleming. Shortly after her birth her father removed with his family to San Francisco, Cal., and Mrs. Sellers, then a babe of six weeks, was carried across the isthmus of Panama on muleback by her mother. Mr. Fleming became prominent at the California bar, but his career was cut short by death. Mrs. Fleming, with her family of three sons and one daughter, returned to Pennsylvania, coming to Pittsburgh. Three weeks later she, too, died, and her children were left in care of an aunt, Mrs. Cornelia Butler, who is still living at the age of 87. All of Mrs. Sellers' subsequent life was spent in Pittsburgh. In 1876 she married Harry W. Sellers of the South Side, whose long connection with the Knox school and the Central board of education has made him well known in educational circles. Previous to her marriage she had been a member of the Third Presbyterian church, but she then joined the First Evangelical Lutheran church, in which her husband's family had long been active. Mrs. Sellers is survived by her husband and three brothers. The latter are George T. Fleming, a journalist and author of several works on the Pittsburgh high school; J. W. Fleming, cashier of the Farmers' Deposit National bank, and Horace D. Fleming.

Funeral of W. W. Whitesell.

Impressive and largely attended funeral services were held over the remains of Attorney W. W. Whitesell at the home of his mother in Broad street, Sewickley, yesterday afternoon. The services were in charge of Ionic lodge 525, F. and A. M., of which deceased was a past master. The quintet of Pittsburgh Commandery No. 1, K. T., sang both at the house and at the grave, while eulogistic addresses were made by the Rev. Dr. W. A. Campbell and the Rev. R. C. Brooks. The pallbearers were: Past Masters B. N. McLain, John W. [illegible] and Dr. W. W. Wolfe; Edward Lewis, past eminent commander of Pittsburgh Commandery No. 1; Joseph T. Nevin, past commander of Lodge No. 85; George A. Goodwin, eminent commander of Pittsburgh Commandery No. 1, and R. J. Cunningham.

Mrs. Helen L. Johnson.

Mrs. Helen L. Johnson, mother of Mayor Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland O., died at her home in Brooklyn yesterday. She had been ill several months. Death was due to infirmities natural to old age. Mayor Johnson and his son were with Mrs. Johnson when she died. Mrs. Johnson was the widow of Col. Albert Johnson, who developed many street railways in the south and had a wide acquaintance in that section.

COMPANY TO BE ENJOINED FROM LAYING PIPE LINE

Fayette County People Claim It Is Private Corporation and Cannot Condemn Land.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

The parties bringing action own 280 acres of land in South Union township.

Although in operation for several years it is claimed it has furnished water only to the H. C. Frick company. The water company is preparing to lay a new pipe line and it is to this that the petitioners object.

It is also set forth that the capital stock of the company is only $6,000, while the cost of the pipe line aggregates $8,000 per mile. The petitioners allege that the water company is a private corporation controlled by the H. C. Frick Coke Company, which provides for the maintenance of the water company.

LESLIE FAVORS A DIRECT VOTE

Next Republican Candidate for Mayor to Be Nominated by the Popular System.

JAMES A. CLARK IS SCARED

Former Senator W. A. Magee, as chairman of the joint rules committee of the Republican county committee and the city committees of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and McKeesport, has called the joint rules committee to meet tomorrow afternoon. Senator Magee's object is to have the city rules amended to agree with the proposed new county rules. It was said yesterday that Mr. Magee might try to get the city committees' members of the joint rules committee to agree to several features which he sought to incorporate into the new county rules, but as it was the opposition of the city committeemen which prevented the insertion of these features into the county rules, it is not considered likely the city committeemen will agree to make the features which they rejected a part of the city committees' rules.

In reality Mr. Magee will try to have the city committeemen agree to change the city rules, so as to make them uniform with the county rules proposed by the joint rules committee. To effect this uniformity the city rules will have to be changed materially. Thus, the city rules provide for the delegate system in making nominations, but the draft of new rules for the county committee provide for the direct vote system. Mr. Magee will propose that all the city committees agree to the direct vote plan in making nominations for city offices.

While the Republican city chairman, M. G. Leslie, had not yet received official notice that the rules committee had been called to meet tomorrow, he did not hesitate to state how he stood on the proposition to incorporate the direct vote plan in the rules of the Pittsburgh city committee.

"There is no doubt," said Mr. Leslie, "that if the county committee adopts the direct vote plan, instead of the present delegate and convention system, the Pittsburgh city committee will also adopt the direct vote plan."

The county committee will meet on Saturday to act on the report of the joint rules committee. Mr. Leslie is a member of the rules committee and as such voted for the adoption of the direct vote in making county nominations, so he will also vote at the meeting of the county committee, of which he is also a member, for the adoption of the new system of making county nominations. His statement that, if the county committee adopts the new plan, the city committee will also adopt it for city nominations is considered as settling the question, and showing there is no doubt that the next Republican candidate for mayor will be nominated by the direct vote of the Republican electors at a Republican primary.

County Commissioner James A. Clark, now out west, has served notice on the Citizens party's managers that unless he is permitted to name the man who is to run with him on the fusion ticket, he will not permit the proposed alliance between Democrats and Citizens to go through. Clark is afraid that if the Citizens put up a member of the Young Men's Republican club the Citizens and Young Men will combine to vote their respective candidates, Clarke, therefore, getting no vote from that outfit. As the voter is permitted to vote only for two candidates for county commissioner, so as to permit the minority party to name one of the three commissioners, it is easy to realize that if the fusion ticket contained the names of two candidates and the Citizens and the Young Men's Republican combine on one, Clark could very easily get left. In case the Republicans elect their two candidates for county commissioner the successful candidate on the fusion ticket might not be Clark.

CHARLES C. RAMSEY MADE FOURTH VICE PRESIDENT

Crucible Directors Fill Vacant Positions and Hear a Fine Report of the June Earnings.

Charles C. Ramsey was yesterday elected by the directors of the Crucible Steel Company of America to the board and then to the position of fourth vice president. In both positions he succeeds Charles E. Clapp, who recently resigned.

Mr. Ramsey has been the New York representative of the Crucible for years. Before the formation of the combination he was with the Park Steel Company. His position in New York has heretofore been under the title of assistant general sales agent. That title is discontinued, and he will continue in charge of the eastern markets of the company with headquarters at New York, under the title of fourth vice president.

As forecasted in The Gazette last week, O. H. Wharton was yesterday appointed general sales agent of the company. This title, as well as the vice presidency, was formerly held by Mr. Clapp. Mr. Wharton has been with the Park Steel Company and the Crucible interests for years.

The report of the June earnings was the most favorable one made this year, and indicates that the company is doing better than for a long time past. No definite statement would be made as to the exact amount of the earnings, but the showing was said to be far better than satisfactory.

PROF. WILLISTON HERE.

One of Those Who Planned the Carnegie Technical Schools Sees the Work's Progress.

Prof. Arthur L. Williston, head of the department of science and technology at the Pratt institute, Brooklyn, spent yesterday in Pittsburgh. Prof. Williston was associated with Director Arthur A. Hamerschlag and Prof. Clifford B. Connelly in the formation of the plans finally adopted for the Carnegie Technical schools.

In his visit here yesterday Prof. Williston had an opportunity to see the progress being made on the "Tech" and expressed himself as much pleased with the rapidity with which the work is going ahead. He also had interviews with several persons in Pittsburgh who are being considered for the Pratt institute work.

In Memoriam.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Western Savings and Deposit bank of Pittsburgh, held on July 10, 1905, the following minute was unanimously adopted:

Julius Schmidt, a member of this board, departed this life on July 7, 1905, in the 56th year of his age. Mr. Schmidt was one of the organizers of this bank, was a member of the first board of directors and had since continuously been a director. He was diligent and faithful in the performance of his every duty and his lifelong connection with the business interests of this community, his knowledge of men and good business judgment made his counsel and advice very valuable.

His gentle, kindly manner, his unfailing courtesy and his cheerfulness and goodness of heart endeared him to his fellow members of the board and to the employes of the bank.

We deeply regret and mourn the death of our friend and associate and we extend our earnest sympathy to his sorrowing family.

PUNXSUTAWNEY TOWN IS PROSTRATED OVER LOSS

Famous Weather Prophet of Groundhog City Stolen at Buffalo—One Man Mean Enough to Claim It Was Only a Cat.

Special Telegram From
JOHN P. COWAN, Staff Correspondent.

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 11.—"Hello, Bill! Did you see anything of our groundhog?" T. S. Drummond, exalted ruler of Punxsutawney lodge, No. 301, ran breathlessly into the Pittsburgh Elks in the Mansion house this morning and addressed Past Exalted Ruler "Bill" Hahn of No. 11. Bill looked puzzled, and the Elk from Canoe Ridge became impatient.

"Where is our groundhog?" he demanded.

"I don't understand," said Bill.

"What sort of animal do you mean, Elk or groundhog?"

"Why, a groundhog—I'm from Punxsutawney."

"Oh! Hello, Bill!"

"You see, Bill McCartney, Congressman Bill Smith and Tom Rogers were appointed on the committee to look after our weather prophet. We wanted to carry him in the parade. The committee went to the Gold Dollar to get a drink of granny coon water, and while they were there a Pittsburgh Elk came along and ran off with the box."

"Oh, yes," said Bill, "I just saw Major Bill McKee running down here with a box. I think he put it in Hall's room."

Just then Doc Means, Des Freas, Dan Clark and some other Punxyites arrived at the hotel to reinforce their exalted ruler in his search. In Hall's room they found only a box of stogies, and, continuing through the corridors, they discovered no other clues of the missing mascot.

Then it looked as if the Punxsutawney Elks would get together for a lodge of sorrow. They stood along the curb in Main street with long faces.

"Hello, Bill! I have unraveled the mystery," shouted Exalted Ruler Drummond to Congressman Smith. "We didn't have a groundhog. The animal in the box was John Fackiner's cat. If you don't believe it, ask the cook at the hotel."

JURY STILL OUT IN STARKEY CASE

Only Question, the Court Says, Is Whether He Was Justified in Shooting.

BLOW AT ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE

At a late hour last night the jury was still out in the case charging Nelson C. Starkey, the Sunday Observance association detective, with having murdered Henry D. Knox. The jury retired shortly after 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. A verdict above murder of the second degree was not asked.

The first witness in the morning was John McNally, an Allegheny city employe. He had been in Alderman Wadsworth's office during the hearing and was still there when Gamble came back and asked for protection. Joseph Kountz testified he had been in a saloon and came out when he heard the crowd. He saw Starkey kicking at the people about him.

The defense opened by placing P. T. Gamble on the stand. He testified that when he and the Starkeys reached the alderman's office a large crowd was in waiting, and they had trouble in getting to the door. When he saw the temper of the crowd he asked Alderman Wadsworth for protection and was told it was not needed. When they left he was assaulted and went back to the office. A constable was sent out with him. The crowd closed in and he began to run. Nelson Starkey told him not to go so fast; it would not look right. But he ran, anyhow. H. N. Starkey was knocked down and he saw a man strike at Nelson Starkey. He heard but two shots and did not see Starkey fire, as he was in advance.

Nelson Starkey's Story.

Nelson Starkey took the stand in his own behalf. He corroborated Gamble's story about the hearing and said he had objected to the hearing that night, as he had heard trouble was brewing. Coming down to the story of the shooting, Starkey said he saw Gamble struck. The constable was hurrying them along, the crowd was hissing, and all of them were struck. Some one hit him behind the ear, staggering him. When he regained his balance he faced the crowd and ordered it to stand back. The crowd came on, he was struck again, and both he and his brother were knocked down. He arose and fired twice in the air. He was again struck twice, and then he fired into the crowd. He shot, he said, in self-defense, not at any individual, but at his pursuers.

Under cross-examination Starkey said it was impossible to proceed after he had fired the first two shots. The crowd was formed in a semi-circle about him and he was exhausted. He was not excited at the time. To Mr. Haymaker he said that after he fired the second time he heard two shots fired in the center of the crowd.

H. N. Starkey told a story similar to those of Gamble and Nelson Starkey. Marcus Starkey, another brother, described his brother's injuries as he saw them at the Allegheny police station.

The Rev. J. T. McCrory testified that before Starkey was employed by the Sabbath Observance association it was ascertained that he had a good character. The Rev. C. T. Thurgood said he had seen the three detectives the day after the shooting and they were badly battered up. The clothes Starkey wore, badly torn, were offered in evidence and the defense closed.

Judge's Charge to Jury.

Neither side offered an argument, and Judge McClung charged the jury. He said the jury was to decide whether the accused was justified in killing a man. The testimony of commonwealth and defense was alike in essentials. If these men, as was testified, were set upon, it was done by a lawless set of people. If the crowd created a necessity for shooting, the man could not be blamed. Judge McClung also said the verdict could not be above murder of the second degree. The jury went out at 2:18 p. m.

Walter C. Maxwell, formerly secretary-treasurer and general manager of the W. C. Maxwell Co., wholesale grain and feed dealers, on Center avenue, East End, which went into bankruptcy several months ago, was placed on trial before Judge Kennedy on a charge of embezzling funds of a corporation. The information is made by James Hemphill, a stockholder in the company, which is an incorporated concern, capitalized at $25,000. Maxwell is specifically charged with embezzling $9,000 and upward belonging to the company while serving the capacity as an officer, and with destroying the books, papers and securities of the concern. Only one witness was called after the case was taken up. Hemphill was placed on the stand and testified regarding the organization of the company. He was still on the stand when court adjourned.

Detective Convicted of Perjury.

L. H. Marshall, the Anti-Saloon league detective, charged with perjury in testifying falsely against Daniel A. Malie, an Allegheny saloonkeeper, during the last session of license court, was convicted, but recommended to the mercy of the court.

Other cases were: Ben Wheeler and William Barton, entering a building, one year to the workhouse; Mary Tompko, larceny, pleaded guilty, sentence suspended; Stewart Dickson, misdemeanor, guilty; Matt. Barnes, larceny, eight months to the workhouse.

Only one of the 50 or more oleo cases on the trial list for yesterday was disposed of in criminal court. John Preach, a butter dealer of 4124 Butler street, was the only defendant tried. He was charged with selling oleomargarine, and the case went to the jury without Preach putting in any defense. The jury, after being out three hours, had failed to return a verdict when court adjourned.

The Lee Lash Company filed a bill in equity against Thomas L. White, asking an injunction restraining White from letting anyone else except the plaintiff company hang a curtain in White's opera house, McKeesport. The plaintiff company avers it has a 10-year contract to hang the curtains in White's theater.

Garbage Case Heard.

Judge McClung held a partial hearing in the equity suit brought by property holders of Versailles township to restrain the city of McKeesport from dumping garbage in the township near their property, and continued the preliminary injunction granted on the filing of the bill. The court said the depositing of garbage was prima facie evidence of a nuisance, and told the attorneys for the city that some other means should be taken for the disposal of the city's refuse. One of the attorneys will be absent from the city for a time, and the preliminary injunction stands until the final hearing, to be held upon the return of the attorney. Calhoun & Johnston represent the township.

Laura V. Scantlin has filed suit for divorce from Robert E. Scantlin, alleging indignities to the person.

A charter was granted the Connaught club by Judge Young.

The failure to determine premiums by competitive bidding is given by Judge Young as a reason for declaring them illegal and usurious in a building and loan case. The suit was brought by John F. Roesser and others against the German National Building and Loan association of Pittsburgh. They asked that premiums paid by them be credited on a mortgage on the ground that as these premiums had been fixed at 50 cents a month on each $100 loaned and not established by competitive bidding they were illegal. The plaintiff also asked that the mortgages be cancelled, claiming that the aggregate of the premiums equalled its face value.

Judge Young sustained the first claim, but not the second. He finds that the plaintiffs are entitled to a credit of $1,209 and that they still owe the association $229. The costs are placed on the plaintiff.

George W. Thurman has sued H. H. Schenck for $5,000 damages, alleging Schenck accused him of being a thief.

Not Invited to Christening.

Kazimer Wasilauski has sued Vincez Janusauskas for $1,000 damages and had a capias issued for the defendant's arrest. The plaintiff alleges that at a christening of his 6-day-old infant, the defendant, who was not invited, came to the plaintiff's house with an officer on the pretended charge that there was a disturbance. The officer, the plaintiff says, finding everything orderly, left after rebuking the defendant. The plaintiff says his wife became frightened at the commotions and ill as a result.

An execution for $14,312 was issued in the suit of the Prudential Trust Company, for use of Michael P. Howley, vs. W. E. Hildebrand, former owner, with notice to Frank P. Howley, present owner, an action on a mortgage. Executions were also issued as follows: John G. Gilchrist et al, vs. Christopher Donatelli, $6,964; Nellie L. Tinstman vs. Franklin P. Ullom, et at, $6,715; Brinkman, Wood & Beck, vs. Chris. Weinkauz, $1,244; J. A. Burkley, vs. James McCurken, $142; Charles A. Truner, vs. Harry Redding, $255; Isabella Gillie, vs. Frank Getkin, $50; Allegheny County Light Company, vs. Jacob P. Nill, $936; G. H. McCandless, vs. Smith, Stern & Co., $187; G. M. Lashey, vs. Herman & Burkovacky, $15; Oliver McClintock, Co., vs. J. M. Laughlin, $41.

A petition in bankruptcy was filed by W. Friedman, a salesman of Duquesne borough. His assets are $1,492 96 and his liabilities $16,506 75.

An application for a charter for the Hungarian Beneficial and Social society of Allegheny was filed. The incorporators are Joseph Czechey, Moske Ladie, Stephen Canijas, Louis Ladie and John Zuhronsky. Attorney Joseph M. Friedman is the solicitor.

BOY VICTIM OF DOPE IS ARRESTED BY POLICE

Frank Geidel, Aged 18, is Charged With Stealing Cocaine from Local Druggists.

Frank Geidel, aged 18, is in Allegheny Central police station as a suspicious person, and the police expect to connect him with numerous robberies that have occurred in drug stores in the two cities within the past year. He was arrested last night by Policeman Charles Smith at Steubner's drug store at California and Marshall avenues.

The boy's downfall is the result of the use of "dope." Cocaine is his failing, and to procure the stuff, it is said, he has been robbing druggists in this vicinity for months. On Saturday night he entered the store of W. W. Dice, secretary of the Retail Druggists' association, in Beaver avenue, and under the pretense of looking at some articles got behind the counter. When he left it was discovered that a vial containing an ounce of cocaine was missing. Dice informed all the retailers in the city to beware of the boy and this warning brought about the arrest.

Geidel entered Steubner's store shortly after 7 o'clock last evening and managed to get behind the counter. He was detained while an officer was sent for. There will be a hearing in the case this morning and it is expected a large number of druggists will attend. Geidel says he lives at No. 31 Morrow street, Pittsburgh.

COMMITTEE TO FIND ARCHITECT

Central Board of Education Considers the Erection of a New High School.

HEARS SOLICITOR'S OPINION

The central board of education, which wrangled until 11 o'clock at night just one month ago over the election of an architect for the new high school, last night, by a unanimous vote, reconsidered part of its previous action, and sent the whole matter to a committee that has not yet been appointed.

The matter was brought up by President D. L. Gillespie reading an opinion from W. J. Brennen, solicitor of the board, in which he said the election of an architect and the acceptance of such election would be a contract. Consequently, any resolution for such election must be referred to a committee before being acted upon.

John H. McIlroy offered a resolution providing that a new central high school shall be erected on the Magee site, and creating a building committee of seven to have charge of the work. The resolution empowers this committee to select an architect, subject to the approval of the board, have preliminary plans and estimates of the cost prepared, and when these have been approved have working plans prepared, solicit bids and let contracts, subject to the approval of the board.

Without discussion and by a unanimous vote the resolutions were adopted. John D. Sweeney offered a resolution directing the committee to contract with the architect in such manner that his services can be dispensed with by the board or committee. In such event, his compensation shall be $2,000 for the plans and his commission on the work actually performed at the time he is dismissed. The plans, in such event, are to be the property of the board.

Mr. Jamison moved that the resolution be referred to the building committee and be returned to the board for final action. Mr. Sweeney agreed to this, and the resolution was adopted. President Gillespie announced that he would name the committee as soon as the title of the Magee site has been approved.

The committee on compulsory education reported that during the year 26,641 cases of absence from school had been reported. The truant officers made 27,974 investigations, sent 1,941 notices to parents and entered 164 prosecutions.

The kindergarten committee reported 36 kindergarten schools in operation. The enrollment is 1,756, the average attendance 1,208, and there are 69 teachers. A warrant for $3,500 was ordered for the kindergarten association.

ITINERARY IS PREPARED FOR THE TOURIST CLUB

Will Visit Washington and Baltimore on Way to Convention of Total Abstinence Union.

The Rev. J. G. Beane Tourist club, an organization composed of Catholic young men and women interested in total abstinence work, is preparing for an extensive trip in connection with the national convention of the Total Abstinence Union of America, which will be held this year at Wilkesbarre, on August 8, 9 and 10.

The club will leave Pittsburgh over the Baltimore & Ohio railroad on the evening of Sunday, August 6, and arrive in Washington, D. C., Monday morning. The day will be spent in the capital and in the evening the party will move on to Baltimore, where a stop will be made until noon on Tuesday. From Baltimore the party will go direct to Wilkesbarre, reaching there in time to attend the public reception to be given the delegates at the Hotel Sterling. The convention will close on Friday and the choice will be given the members of a trip to Atlantic City over Sunday or a stay in Wilkesbarre, where several forms of entertainment will be offered.

This convention promises to be one of the greatest the organization has ever held. Among others who are expected are President Roosevelt and several members of his cabinet, Cardinal Gibbons, Bishop Canevin of Pittsburgh, Bishop Michael Hoban of Scranton. A feature of the week will be a parade of the societies in which 12,000 people are expected to participate. The procession will be reviewed by President Roosevelt, who will visit Wilkesbarre for that purpose.

The Beane club will hold a meeting at its quarters in the Washington National bank building, Fifth avenue and Washington street, Friday evening next, to complete the arrangements. Father Beane desires to take a large delegation from Pittsburgh and has decided to permit any person of proper standing to accompany the club on this occasion.

WILL VISIT CARNEGIE.

Schoolmarm Leaves for Skibo Castle to Urge Teachers' Pensions.

Miss Emma Marloff, a teacher in the Beltzhoover schools, leaves for Skibo castle, Scotland, tomorrow night, to make a personal appeal to Andrew Carnegie to establish a fund to be used in pensioning public school teachers of Pittsburgh.

As Mr. Carnegie has already established a similar fund for college instructors, Miss Marloff sees a ray of hope lighting her ambition. She has been provided with letters of introduction to the steelmaster by Dr. W. J. Holland and Prof. John A. Brashear. Miss Marloff will represent the Pittsburgh Teachers' association in making the plea. That organization suggests pensions for those who have taught in the schools for 20 years.

Contagious Diseases in Pittsburgh.

Five cases of scarlet fever, six of typhoid fever and one of diphtheria, were reported to the Pittsburgh bureau of health yesterday.

TEN YEARS
THE STORY OF
My Wonderful Success
Reads Like a Fairy Tale, Yet Full of Convincing Truths
AN OPPORTUNITY OF A LIFETIME FOR THE INVESTOR
TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT

I ask every reader of this paper to write me. I want to send you my free book entitled "Ten Years"—"The Story of My Wonderful Success." It tells about one of the greatest and most promising investment opportunities ever offered. It tells how my business grew from less than $25.00 capital to its present proportions.

I believe I have the best proposition from an investor's standpoint that could be placed before you. For ten years I have been teaching men and women to live according to the laws of Nature. My book is the history of my life. It shows what energy and ambition can accomplish in the world of affairs. It is intensely interesting to any man or woman who has a few dollars to invest in a legitimate enterprise.

I started business in the City of Brooklyn in 1896. My capital amounted to less than $25.00. My first year's business netted me over $1,000.00. Last year I paid dividends to my partners of 15 per cent. Five years ago my business had grown so large that I was compelled to remove to larger quarters. I am now at 63-65 Clark St., Brooklyn, N. Y., in connection with Hotel St. George. Experts pronounce my Institution to be the best appointed of its kind in the country. I estimate the equipment of the Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture to be worth at least $40,000.00.

I want to have a building of my own that will enable me to accommodate my increasing business. To erect this building I need capital, but more important than this—to increase my business to the proportion which I desire, I need the co-operation of men and women throughout the country and the world.

CO-OPERATION IS THE SECRET OF SUCCESS

I recognize It. I believe that with thousands of co-operators throughout the country I can build my business to tremendous proportions to the benefit of the shareholders and myself.

The Mac Levy Company is incorporated under the laws of New York for $150,000.00. They are proprietors of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

The last named branch of the business of the Mac Levy Company is comparatively new. I have been at work for several years to establish such a department in connection with teaching Physical Culture. The most difficult part of forming the Equipment Company has been accomplished. The business is now in condition to be pushed on a large scale. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent yearly on new gymnasiums and their equipment. The profits are large. A Company of this kind has an immense field in which to work. Competition is slight. It is evident that The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company can build up an enormous business.

The Mac Levy Company operates during the summer months at Steeplechase Park, Coney Island, and at Arverne Hotel, Arverne-by the Sea, L. I., as well as at our Brooklyn Institute. It also does an extensive mail business. I teach people how they should live and exercise. My students are scattered all over the United States, and in English speaking countries.

A PROBLEM

which arises in the minds of every man and woman is how to secure a comfortable income in the earlier years of their life that they may reap the full benefits which such an income affords.

I have long thought that there are hundreds of people in moderate circumstances who would like to invest a few dollars in an institution of this kind. It is to such people that I intend this announcement shall appeal. I am offering a block of the Treasury Stock of this Company to the public at its par value. My reasons for doing this are that I wish to erect a building and to extend the business of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

I WANT YOU AS MY PARTNER

I need your help and suggestions. I want you to work with me and help to secure a tremendous amount of new business.

I believe that if you could talk with me personally and go over the records of the business which I have done, see in black and white the figures which show the steady growth my business has experienced during the past ten years, examine my plans for future extension, and then look over the magnificent equipment of my Institute, you would want no further evidence that money put into this business would bring you the greatest possible returns consistent with safety and good management.

I ask you to write for my free book. I believe it will interest you. You have a few dollars that you want to invest. Why let it stand idle earning only 3 or 4 per cent that Savings Banks pay their depositors? Put it to work. Join in with mine. This Company ought to pay at least TWENTY PER CENT DIVIDENDS within one year. Write for my book today. NOW.

OTIS CLYMER'S BATTING HELPED THE PIRATES TO VICTORY

BUMP THE BALL GOOD AND HARD

Pirates Strike Brooklyn in a Batting Humor and Hanlon's Pitchers Suffer.

GREAT WORK BY PHILLIPPE

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, July 11.—While the Seleclans were trying to pull McGraw's champions down at the Polo grounds this afternoon the Pirates were indulging in a "swatfest" in Washington park, Brooklyn, at the expense of Pitchers Jones and Mitchell of the Hanlonites. Score, Pittsburgh 11, Brooklyn 2.

The cannonading was commenced by Clymer, the first batter up, who tripled, and the remainder of the game was freely punctuated with hits of every description, from a four-bagger by Beaumont in the third, on which Clymer also scored, to a sacrifice, the latter style of hit seemed to be out of place, so rapid were safeties being distributed by the visitors. The deacon of Redwood, South Dakota, was the whole show, multiplied by six. The intense heat had no apparent effect on him. Indeed, he pitched better ball than he has on his recent visits to Brooklyn, showing all the old-time control, speed and all around ability. The visitors got their first run in the opening inning on Clymer's triple and Clarke's single to right.

In the third inning every man faced Pitcher Jones, the deacon opening and closing the inning. With two men out they ran up five runs. This was done by good, clean singles by Clymer, Howard, Brain, Peitz, Beaumont's home run, fielding and battery errors by the locals. One more was made in the fourth on Clymer's single, a passed ball, wild pitch and Beaumont's out at first.

In the fifth inning Ritchey reached first on an infield hit. Peitz sacrificed. Phillippe received free transportation. On Clymer's safe rap Ritchey scored. After Clarke went out at first Beaumont hit safely, scoring Phillippe. Beaumont and Clymer worked a double steal, the latter crossing the plate, making three more runs.

The visitors' last run was made in the sixth on a gift to Brain, who stole second and advanced to third on Bergen's chuck to center field, scoring on Ritchey's fly to center field. This ended their run-getting.

Notwithstanding that the locals hit Phillippe hard, most of their raps came at times when they resulted in very few runs. The Brooklynites got only two runs, one in the first and on in the third.

The feature of the game was the batting of Clymer. He had a field day, making five hits out of five times at bat. Lumley also gathered in four. Lewis furnished the only spectacular fielding feature, a fine left handed running stop and throw of Beaumont's grounder near second, which resulted in a double play in the first inning.

Secretary Locke said today that the Pirates are better fortified and in better shape for road work than they have been in nearly two years. He also added that their hardest games have been played, in fact, they have only two more games with Chicago, one of these being a postponed contest. The score:

EXTRA INNING GAMES THE RULE IN TRI-STATE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

ALTOONA, July 11.—Pitchers Manning and McNeely fought a sensational 15-inning duel today, in which McNeely came out the victor. Both twirlers pitched grandly, and it is simply a matter of opinion as to whom had the better of the argument. McNeeley's two-bagger tied the score in the seventh, and from that until the fifteenth a dead heat ensued. In the fifteenth a base on balls, a single and an error by McCarthy filled the basses, and Weddige brought in the winning run with a long drive past third. The score:

VICTORY FOR WAYNESBURG.

Soldier Mullin Pitches His Team to a Clever Victory.

The Edgar Thomson Works team lost to Waynesburg yesterday at Braddock in a loose game. The heavy batting of the visitors was the cause of the defeat of the Braddock team. The score was 7 to 3. KLINE DEFENDS MR. ROCKEFELLER Denies Extortion Was Practiced in Securing Standard Oil Stock.

CORRIGAN IS ACCOMMODATED

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau,
Herald Building, Herald Square,
NEW YORK, July 11.

Virgil P. Kline of Cleveland today made this reply to a recent magazine article regarding the case of Corrigan against John D. Rockefeller, in which Mr. Kline was of counsel:

"On February 19, 1895, Mr. Corrigan owed Mr. Rockefeller upward of $415,000. Mr. Rockefeller had also advanced, on account of an iron mining company in which Mr. Corrigan was interested, more than $260,000 secured by indorsements of Mr. Corrigan and by deposits of his stock in that company. Mr. Corrigan, needing more money, sold to Mr. Rockefeller 2,500 shares of Standard trust certificates, at the then market price of $168 a share, and out of the proceeds received $80,000 in cash, with about 4,350 shares of his stock in the mining company, for his present use, the remainder of the purchase money being applied to the ultimate working indebtedness.

"On June 30, 1897, Mr. Corrigan filed a petition in the court of common pleas of Cuyahoga county, O., against Mr. Rockefeller, charging that Mr. Rockefeller, bearing a fiduciary relationship toward him as trustee, in acquiring his stock at less than its true value, had made false representations to him as to the condition of the Standard Oil trust and the value of its shares; that he had also taken advantage of his ignorance of the real value of the shares and of his embarrassed condition to obtain from him an unfair bargain, and, to induce him to make the sale, had represented to him that the shares were not worth the price paid therefor.

"Mr. Rockefeller promptly denied all these averments of fraud and bad faith.

"As arbitrators, William G. Choate and William D. Guthrie of New York and William A. Lynch of Canton, O., on April 20, 1899, determined in favor of the defendant, saying:

"'The evidence has satisfied that the defendant made the purchase of the stock in good faith, and at what he believed to be its full value and a fair price, and that he did not use the circumstances or necessities of the plaintiff as a means of extorting from him either the purchase of the stock or its purchase at an improper or insufficient consideration, and that he was actuated by a desire to accommodate the plaintiff and relieve him from his embarrassment by making with him the agreement of which the purchase of the stock was part.'"

THE THREE RIVERS

The stage of water at Davis island dam at 9 o'clock last night was 6 feet, and the river was stationary.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

CINCINNATI, O., July 11.—The Ohio river continues to rise at this point, and at 6 o'clock tonight the stage had reached 16 feet and 2 inches. The river is still rising. The Harry Brown, the advance boat of the fleet started by the Pittsburgh Coal Company, arrived today. Other boats in the fleet are expected to come into port Wednesday. The J. T. Hatfield arrived today from the Kanawha river. The Virginia carried a good freight and passenger traffic to Pittsburgh today. The repairs on the City of Louisville, which broke her wheel and also blew out a shafting, are well under way and the steamer will be able to resume her trips between here and Louisville within the next ten days. Cloudy and cool.

LOUISVILLE—River rising; in canal, 8 feet; on falls, 3.8 feet; below locks, 13 feet. Clear and pleasant.

WARREN—River 1 foot 8 inches. Weather fair and warm.

MORGANTOWN—River 6 feet 9 inches and stationary. Weather cloudy.

GREENSBORO—River 8 feet 1 inch and stationary. Weather cloudy and warm. Woodward down Wednesday, Columbia up.

POINT PLEASANT—River 9 feet 10 inches and stationary. Weather cloudy. Up: Lucy Marmet, Resolute, Greenland. Down: Tom Reese, Tacoma, G. W. Thomas, Charles Brown.

PARKERSBURG—River 9.2 feet and falling. Weather clear and hot. The Bessie Smith left at 4 a. m. for Wheeling, the French at 4 p. m. for Creston, the Ben Hur at 4 p. m. for Pittsburgh, the Keystone States at 8 p. m. for Cincinnati.

GALLIPOLIS—River 12 feet 6 inches and stationary. Weather cloudy and warm.

STEUBENVILLE—River 7 feet 6 inches and falling. Weather cloudy and warm. Down: Dave Wood, Volunteer, Queen City, Valiant.

OPPOSED TO SHANTY BOATS.

Steamboat Men Air One of Their Chief Grievances.

One of the grievances which go to mar the symmetry of life on the rivers is the shantyboat. Not the boat of the permanent resident at some point along the shore, but the real shantyboat man who travels from Cincinnati to New Orleans in a miserable little houseboat. Rivermen are now discussing some way of controlling them. They cannot be put off the rivers, as these are a public highway, and they have as many rights as the biggest steamboat afloat. But there is some talk of going after them for neglecting to place lights on their boats when at landings and for many other infractions of the rules governing navigation. At the room of Harbor 25 yesterday Capt. George W. Gibson, president of the Harbor, talked at some length on this nuisance. On his last trip up he had towed a shantyboat from Louisville to Cincinnati. The woman's husband had recently killed a man at Louisville and escaped. He was her fifth husband, of whom three were in the penitentiary. Another was drowned. She had two children, a son of 19 and a daughter a couple of years younger. The son had attended school six months. The daughter had never attended. Capt. Gibson is of the opinion that a "gospel" boat to instruct this class of people would prove an immense benefit.

REAPER COMBINE SUED ON REBATES

Disgruntled Stockholder Files Sensational Suit Against the McCormick Company.

SAYS IT HELD UP RAILROADS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, July 11.—Rodney B. Swift, formerly head of the experimental department of the McCormick branch of the International Harvester Company, today filed a suit against the company demanding an accounting. Swift's connection with the company was severed some months ago, and suit was commenced against him by the officials of the company who alleged he had defrauded them in the sale of a patent.

In his bill filed this afternoon Swift, as a stockholder, demands an accounting from the company and demands that the court force the company to cease taking rebates from the railroad companies, and also compel the company to return to the railroads money said by Swift to have been illegally exacted from the railroads in the past.

The following railroads are also made parties to the suit: Chicago, West Pullman & Southern, Illinois Northern, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, Chicago & Northwestern, Illinois Central, Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe, Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, Chicago & Alton, Chicago Great Western and Wisconsin Central.

Of the railroads made defendants in the suit two, the Chicago, West Pullman & Southern and the Illinois Northern, are described in the bill filed by Swift as being the means by which tribute was exacted from the larger roads in favor of the Harvester company.

These two roads, Swift asserts, consist principally of switch tracks. Swift declares that up to September 30, 1902, the McCormick branch of the Harvester company alone forced the railroads to pay it through rebates and the operations of the Illinois Northern road, a sum in excess of $3,000,000. Up to the same date the money received in rebates by the Plano branch of the Harvester company, through the agency of the Chicago, West Pullman & Southern railroad, amounted to $500,000 and from other railways, to $1,000,000.

HEALING MARYLAND BREACH.

Stevenson A. Williams Appointed to Republican National Committee for That State.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Postmaster General Cortelyou today announced the appointment of Stevenson A. Williams of Bel Air as member of the Republican national committee of Maryland to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of former United States Senator Louis E. McComas, recently appointed associate justice of the court of appeals of the District of Columbia.

Mr. Williams is a lawyer, and was the Republican candidate for governor of Maryland in 1903. He was formerly a member of the state senate. Mr. Cortelyou said that the appointment was made in the belief that it would prove satisfactory to all elements of the party in Maryland.

To Improve Allegheny Streets.

The committee on public works of Allegheny councils last night ordered printed for councils ordinances authorizing the grading and paving of Maryland avenue, the construction of sewers on Colfax, Sumner and Winifred streets and the regrading and repaving of Irwin avenue from North to Ellsworth avenue. Measures providing for a sewer in Fountain street and for the grading of Postman avenue, St. Clair terrace and Washington avenue were reported negatively.

Among the Clubs.

Second Milk and Ice Station Opens.

The second station of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Milk and Ice association will be opened this morning in the chapel of the Fourth Avenue Baptist church in Fourth avenue, near Ross street. It was to have been opened a couple of weeks ago, but there was delay in finishing the necessary plumbing. Miss Henrietta Martin will be placed in charge and the station will be open between 8 o'clock and 11 each morning, and 1 and 5 in the afternoons. The entrance to the station is from the alley between the chapel and the bureau of public charities in Fourth avenue, a door having been opened from the chapel directly to the alley, so that the station will be entirely separated from the church. The first station opened this season, which has also been the only one thus far, was established in the "King's Own Mission" in Robinson street, Allegheny, where Miss Pritchard has been in charge. It is in a very destitute neighborhood and the daily distribution is made to between 50 and 60 families, each composed of five or six children. The daily distribution amounts to 30 quarts of milk, which is sold at a penny a glass, five glasses being in one quart. Sometimes the children will take the glass of milk home, but oftener they drink the milk at the mission. Miss Pritchard buys about 500 pounds of ice each day, which is sold in small quantities to the people of the neighborhood. Ever since it was opened the station in Robinson street has been showing a steady increase in the distribution. A third station is now under consideration and will possibly be located in the headquarters of the Volunteers of America in Station street, near Frankstown avenue, East Liberty. The Volunteers have asked for a station here, and the location is under consideration. The work of the association is not confined to the distributing stations, but modified milk is given on the physician's certificate to 25 families in different parts of the city, the milk being left by the Walker-Gordon Company at the drug store nearest the home of the applicant who goes for it. This feature of the work of the association is carried on throughout the year, while the other is conducted only during the hot weather. With more funds at their disposal the officers will be able to establish more summer stations.

Vacation Bible Schools.

Fourteen vacation Bible schools were opened on Monday morning in New York city under the auspices of the Federation of Churches. These were in addition to the 33 vacation schools opened by the board of education. At the Bible schools there was a total attendance of 1,039. The largest was in the Congregational tent in Brooklyn, where 375 children registered, and others were turned away who arrived later than 9:30 o'clock. At the Evangelistic tent, One Hundred and Twelfth street and First avenue, there were 66 little Italians. The other vacation Bible schools were opened in St. Mark's church, the Second Avenue Young Men's Christian association, the People's Home church, the Judson Memorial church, the Phelps Memorial settlement, the Church of the Messiah, Christ chapel and the Union Avenue church, Brooklyn. The session on Monday morning was devoted chiefly to the work of enrollment, with a little singing and a Bible lesson, "The Story of Eden."

Success of the Kitchengarden.

The success of the kitchengarden classes in the Third ward vacation school, Allegheny, is assured. Mrs. Dallas Albert is in charge of this feature of the work of the school, and conducts two classes each morning, with an enrollment of 135. Strict order is maintained, and the boys and girls enter with spirit and enthusiasm into the songs and drills. The kitchengarden classes in the vacation school in Chestnut street, Third ward, Allegheny, are the only classes this year in the vacation schools, and the exercises each morning prove very attractive to visitors and children alike.

CHAUTAUQUA

CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y., July 11.—(Special.)—That the indignation aroused by ex-President Grover Cleveland's recent attack on women's clubs has not yet subsided was evidenced at the Women's club when Mrs. Wiles, secretary of the Chautauqua Women's club, and former president of the Illinois Federation, referred to Mr. Cleveland's article in which he asserts that "they menace the integrity of our homes, and the character of our wifehood and motherhood." She urged every club woman to read Mr. Cleveland's article in order that she might have the satisfaction of knowing the really amazing ignorance which he displays in regard to the movement he condemns.

The first meeting of the National Council of Superintendents and principals was held with an attendance representing 20 states. Miss Ada Harris of Rochester, N. Y., one of the most widely known leaders in elementary school education in the country, lectured this morning on "The School of Yesterday and Today." Miss Mary Wightman of Allegheny conducted the devotional exercises in the Methodist house.

A young people's rally was held in the hall of Philosophy in the evening when the Rev. Samuel Semple of Titusville conducted the exercises.

VERY LITTLE PRODUCTION RESPONDS TO THE DRILL

Developments in the lower southwest fields were light and failed to reveal anything out of the ordinary. The few producers drilled in are located in the deep sand districts and show for light pumpers. In the Fairview district, in Marion county, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its No. 2 on the R. E. Tennant farm 6 feet into the fourth sand and the hole has filled up 2,000 feet with fluid. It is still drilling and may get a second pay. In the Smithfield district, in Wetzel county, the South Penn has drilled its second test on the Samuel Cummings farm 10 feet into the Big Injun and has no show for a producer. It is still drilling and stands a show for a pay. In the Salem district, Harrison county, the same company has drilled its test on the Clyde Bailey farm 50 feet in to the Gordon and has developed some gas and has shut down to move back the boiler.

On the Ohio side, in the Payne district, in Washington county, the Cumberland Oil Company has completed and shot its No. 11 on the L. Snodgrass farm, located on Bear run, and has a show for a 25-barrel producer in the Berea grit. In the Macksburg field, in the same county, Mullen & Co. have completed a test on the Emaline Johnson farm and have a 10-barrel pumper. In the Wolf Creek district, the Tecumseh Oil and Gas Company's No. 17 on the Ruth A. Chapman farm is declining. The last reported gauge gave the production at 110 barrels for 24 hours. The same company is drilling No. 18 on the same farm. In the Chester Hill district, Morgan county, C. W. VanLaw has completed No. 11 on the S. H. Metzgar farm and has a 3-barrel pumper.

In the Bakerstown district, Allegheny county, Pennsylvania, the Parks Oil Company has completed its test on the Ira Crawford farm and has a show for an 8 or 10-barrel pumper. In the same district, the Crystal Farm Gas Company's second test on the Crystal farm proved to be a failure as a gasser in the 30-foot sand and they are now drilling it to the fourth sand.

DOINGS AT ATLANTIC CITY.

ATLANTIC CITY, July 11.—A drenching shower that swept over the resort during the bathing hour this afternoon failed to dampen the pleasure of the beach crowd who gathered under cover of pavilions and piers, but a loud wail went up from the bath house barons who calculated that they lost a thousand dollars or so by the sudden breaking off of patronage of the bathers who lost their enthusiasm for water when it came from the clouds. The general scurry for shelter greatly amused the lucky ones occupying protected places of vantage and the display included latest styles in lingerie and summer hose.

A party of well-known Pittsburgh people who made up a luncheon party at the Brighton yesterday included Mrs. John Liggett, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Liggett, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Liggett, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Phillips, Mrs. Eva Rucker, Miss Gamble and Mrs. A. T. Easton. A run to the country club in an automobile finished the day's pleasure.

DENY REPORTED CONTRACT.

Tin Plate Company Officials Say They Have Closed No Deal With Standard Oil.

NEW YORK, July 11.—(Special.)—It appears that the reported placing by the Standard Oil Company with the American Sheet and Tin Plate Company of a contract for 2,000,000 boxes of tin plate at a cost of $5,000,000 or more is without foundation.

The story has been widely circulated, but is positively denied by the officers of the tin plate company, who say they would be glad to have such an order, as the demand for tin plate is none too brisk. Only the usual routine orders are being received from the Standard Oil Company.

Former Financier Kills Himself.

DARLINGTON, S. C., July 11.—R. Keith Dargan, formerly president of the Independent Cotton Oil Company and the Dargan Trust Company, committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid. Dargan was talking to his brother a short time before and seemed in good spirits, although the failure of the mills and the closing of the trust company's doors were naturally weighing upon his mind.

Larkin Tells of Switch Money.

Controller Larkin has gone over the switch license and linear tax figures furnished by Director Bigelow and has decided the city should receive $64,030 this year, according to the data given him. The reports show there are 282 switches on the public streets, which ought to bring a revenue of $21,150, and attached to these are 87,760 lineal feet of sidings, which ought to bring $42,880, a total revenue of $64,030, so Controller Larkin says.

Charles McKnight Lets Contract for Buildings to Cost $75,000 and Plans Five More.

GOOD RESALE IN PENN AVENUE

Five more modern commission houses are assured for the Lawrenceville district and another lot of five is likely to be built this fall by the same property owner. Charles McKnight has just awarded a contract to the A. & S. Wilson company for the erection of the first five buildings, which will be at the northwest corner of Liberty avenue and Twenty-first street. They will cover a site facing 100 feet in Twenty-first street, with a depth of 96 feet along Liberty avenue in front and Spring alley in the rear. The buildings will be three-story brick structures, 20 feet wide, and will all face in Twenty-first street. According to the plans they will be provided with elevators, a three-foot light court in the rear and an eight-foot vault under the pavement in front. Each building will have a well-finished basement and a heavy awning suspended by chains in front. A refrigerating plant will also be supplied. The cost of the row will be at least $75,000. The work of razing the old grocery store and dwellings on the latter will be started next week, and no time will be lost in getting the warehouses started, as they are to be completed by January 1. One of the buildings has already been promised to Crutchfield & Woolfolk, who still have a two years' lease on their store building at 517 Liberty avenue, and also have establishments in South Diamond street and Twenty-first street. It is reported that at least three other prominent Liberty avenue firms are seeking quarters in the proposed buildings.

Mr. McKnight last year bought 96x100 feet at this corning of Liberty avenue and Twenty-first street and 43x100 feet at the corner of Penn avenue and Twenty-first street in the rear for about $100,000. Plans are now being prepared for five produce warehouses on the Penn avenue end similar to those mentioned above, which are to be built this fall. This will give to the new commission district 10 strictly modern structures planned exclusively for the needs of the produce and fruit commission business. In addition to the McKnight project Joseph Craig let the contract to C. W. Houggy for an $18,000 warehouse in Eighteenth street and James A. McAteer & Sons have let the contract to the A. & S. Wilson Company for a $60,000 produce warehouse at Penn avenue and Twenty-second street.

Resale of Penn Avenue Lot.

The former Devlin holdings at 1145 Penn avenue have been resold by Attorney A. C. Stein to a local business man for $46,000, or $4,000 more than Mr. Stein paid for them a week ago. When the price paid last week was announced, $1,700 a front foot, or $17.50 a square foot, it was thought the limit in that neighborhood had been reached, as this was away ahead of anything that had been paid previously. The resale of the property so soon at a good profit shows that the district is coming rapidly into favor with investors. The Devlin lot is 24x100 feet and is improved with a good two-story brick building occupied as a saloon.

Through the Real Estate Trust Company and the Real Estate Savings and Trust Company of Allegheny a $66,000 exchange deal was closed yesterday. For R. M. Lennox these firms sold to McKiveen & White a four-story brick flat building at 1314 Bedford avenue, near Washington street, for $30,000. The building contains 103 rooms arranged in suites of two and three rooms and brings in a rental of $5,000 a year. In exchange for this property McKiveen & White tendered six eight-room brick houses on lots 25x93 feet each at 7413-7423 Race street, Twenty-first ward, which were put into the deal at $36,000, or 6,000 each. The houses are rented for $35 a month each.

Fate of Avenue Is Decided.

The Pittsburgh Opera House Company will erect a five-story steel frame fireproof business block on the site of the burned Avenue theater in Fifth avenue. Architects MacClure & Spahr have been selected to prepare plans for the building which is expected to cost $125,000. The building will be erected on the old Avenue foundation walls, which are found to be amply strong enough. No details about the structure have been announced, but it is expected that the old entrance to the Grand opera house will be retained and the remainder of the Fifth avenue frontage will be for stores. Harry Davis has a long lease on the property and the building will be leased from him.

Architect O. M. Topp has plans for a brick and stone church building for the Methodist Episcopal congregation of Greensburg, to cost $75,000.

Architects Dean & Stophlet will receive estimates in a few days on the Masonic temple to be built at Tarentum at a cost of $25,000.

Architect William J. Shaw has plans for a large addition to the insane hospital at Warren, Pa.

The Carrick Amusement Company is receiving bids for a big hall which will be built in Brownsville, Carrick.

Capt. Samuel S. Brown will build a $75,000 stable on Squirrel Hill from plans by Architects George S. Orth & Brothers, who are taking estimates.

B. F. Lee & Co. of Wilkinsburg have the contract for a three-story brick apartment house to be built for George W. Wurtz at Edgewood at a cost of $40,000.

Good Sales in McKeesport.

Chris Wiegering has sold to M. G. Kraus and M. Schwartz an improved property, 125x140 feet, in Shaw avenue, McKeesport, for $25,000. Another McKeesport sale announced yesterday was that of 1321 Fifth avenue, which was sold to B. Meletsky through the agency of A. H. McKee for $12,000. The lot is 20x100 feet, and has on it a three-story buff brick building. A third sale in the Tube City was made by Bernard Morris, who sold to William Hardy and John J. Butler property at Fifth avenue and Sinclair street for $15,000 through the office of Mansfield & Fell.

The Safe Deposit and Trust Company yesterday sold at auction a nine-room brick house and a frame house, on 55x200 feet, on the west side of Beaver road, extending through to Spruce avenue, Ben Avon, for $3,400. It is known as the Clara S. Huddleston property. They also sold at auction an improved lot at Ridge and Spruce avenues, Ben Avon, for $2,400.

Through the Aronson Realty company William Hackett has sold to Miss Leslie McCune of Allegheny 2008-2010 Webster avenue, Eleventh ward, for $13,500. There are three buildings on the lot, which is 40x100 feet to an alley.

Dr. William A. Caven has bought from Grace E. Frasher an improved property, 22x127 feet, at the southeast corner of Fifth avenue and an unnamed alley, Fourteenth ward, for $15,000.

Catherine street: The Free Methodist Episcopal church of Mt. Washington has sold to Jessie F. Silver 36x50 feet on the south side of Catherine street, near Ruth street, Thirty-second ward, for $1,750.

Woodville avenue: Rachel E. Norris sold to Charles Helck 40x170 feet in Woodville avenue, Thirty-fifth ward, for $1,000.

Tuscarora street: H. G. Morgan sold to Andrew Morris 22x130 feet in the south side of Tuscarora street, Twenty-second ward, for $1,900.

Allegheny: L. A. Clark & Co. sold to R. H. Elliott lot 3 in the L. A. Clark plan in Osgood street, Tenth ward, Allegheny, for $600. The lot is 25x100 feet.

The East End Savings and Trust Company sold for L. Vilsack to Dr. H. D. Fulton 30x130 feet in Chislett street in the Vilsack plan in Morningside for $2,250, or $750 a foot front.

Select Councilman David Rosenberg of McKeesport yesterday purchased from the First National bank of that city a Second avenue property, 70x84 feet, for $8,500. Mr. Roseberg intends erecting tenement houses on the ground.

Building permits were issued to J. M. Gartside for a two-story brick dwelling on North Negley avenue, Nineteenth ward, to cost $12,800; D. R. Evans, three two-story frame dwellings on Aspen street, Twentieth ward, to cost $8,140; Daniel Clemson, two-story brick stable on Fifth avenue, Twentieth ward, to cost $12,000; Mrs. Lewis Schutte, two-story brick veneered dwelling on Dalzell place, Twenty-second ward, to cost $7,000; Philomena Nicholas, two-story frame dwelling on Holt street, Twenty-seventh ward, to cost $2,100; M. STOCK MARKET ACTIVE AND PRICES DECLINED Losses Ranged from 1 to 3 Points and Prices Closed Near the Lowest—Five Dollar Break in Pittsburgh Coal Preferred.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

The New York stock market was active yesterday, the sales approximating 875,000 shares, but the tone was heavy almost from the start, and closing prices were at or near the lowest of the day. The losses ranged from 1 to 3 per cent, and were well distributed throughout all departments of the market.

It is estimated that London sold about 60,000 shares at the opening. The foreign market was said to be influenced by the reports concerning our cotton crop, and by the failure of a large jobber in mining shares on the London exchange. The selling for domestic account was said to be profit-taking, and the losses were largest in those stocks which have been leaders of the recent upward movement, like Union Pacific and Reading.

The publication of what purported to be additional facts in connection with the Equitable Life scandal had some influence, perhaps. At all events, Metropolitan Street Railway was one of the weakest stocks, and it was one of the strongest a few weeks ago on the announcement that Mr. T. F. Ryan had acquired control of the insurance company. The other tractions were also heavy and closed 1½ per cent lower.

Another influence upon the market was the impending government crop report. Grain markets ruled strong and cotton again advanced. The government figures were not made public until after the close of the market, and they did not contain anything that should cause alarm to holders of western railroad stocks. The average condition of winter wheat is reported at 82.7, which is 2.8 per cent below the average for the corresponding date last year, but 4 points above the figures of one month ago. The spring wheat average is placed at 91, compared with 93.7 last month. The condition of corn is 87.3, which is about a point higher than a year ago, and the acreage is estimated at 94,011,000, an increase of 2,080,000 acres over last year.

A feature of the stock market was the absence of a rally of any consequence, and this was quite as noticeable in the industrials as in the railroads. During the afternoon the announcement was made that the Union Pacific board was unable to obtain a quorum, and action on the dividend was therefore postponed. The stock, which had opened at 129, sold down to 126¾ and the final sale was at 127. Reading closed at a net decline of 2⅜ per cent. The only stock on the list which held its own was Baltimore & Ohio, which closed ½ per cent higher. The directors are scheduled to meet today to take action on the dividend, and there is a confident feeling that the rate will be increased to 2½ per cent semi-annual.

United States Steel common and preferred each lost 2 per cent during the day and closed near the lowest. Tennessee Coal and Iron broke from 90¼ to 87, and closed at the lowest. Amalgamated Copper closed 1½ per cent lower.

While subscription books for the new Japanese war loan do not open until 10 o'clock this morning, it was reported that the $50,000,000 offered in this country would be over-subscribed at least four and a half times. The demand for this class of investment is in marked contrast to the apathy displayed in the market for railroad issues of domestic production.

Call loan rates were if anything easier, opening at 2¾, declining to 2¼, and closing at 2 bid, 2½ asked.

The feature of the local stock market was the $5 break in Pittsburgh Coal preferred, which sold down to 57¾, the lowest of the year, and closed at 57½ bid. The market here merely followed the weakness in New York, where the stock broke to 58, the decline being influenced apparently by the publication in Wall street of reports of unfavorable trade conditions. The common stock was inactive, 55 shares changing hands at 14½ and more being offered at that price at the close. There were no transactions in River Coal issues. Pittsburgh Plate Glass, Sewer Pipe and Fire Proofing preferred were firm and higher, and Lustre Mining and Tonopah Extension enjoyed a sharp rally. Westinghouse Electric declined 1¼ points, while Air Brake held steady at 147½. United States Steel issues were active, but Crucible Steel was dull, closing ¼@½ per cent lower. The market closed heavy, under the influence of the depression in Pittsburgh Coal.

IN WALL STREET

Stock market active, but the tone was heavy from start to finish.

Losses ranged from 1 to 3 points, and prices closed near the lowest.

Sales included 864,800 shares stock and $2,740,000 bonds.

Reading and Union Pacific the greatest losers in the railroad list.

Baltimore & Ohio the only prominent stock to close higher.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

The decline in Pittsburgh Coal preferred started in New York, but it went a little further here, the lowest being 57¾, as against 58, the low point in New York. Inquiries were received from the latter market as to the action taken by the directors on the dividend, and when the reply was made that action had been postponed because of the absence of a quorum of the board, and that a meeting would be held next Tuesday, the weakness became pronounced and was reflected here. On the local board there was a drop from 58¾ to 58 without intervening transaction, indicating the absence of buying orders in the hands of brokers. The final quotations were 57½ bid, 57⅞ asked. Conjecture as to the action of the directors next week is idle, but the weakness in the stock suggests that the public is preparing itself for a possible reduction in the rate. It did the same thing, however, last year when the price dropped to 45, the lowest ever quoted, but no change was made in the dividend. There was a rumor in the street that the regular rate would be declared next week, but that payment would be deferred until October, when the third quarterly dividend of the year would fall due, but there was no foundation for the rumor, so far as could be learned.

The smart reaction in the New York stock market yesterday was responsible for a shifting of sentiment to the bear side. The selling which had most effect on speculation sentiment was rather ostentatiously done by brokers credited with representing the organized parties supposed to have conducted the leadership of the recent signal rise in the market. Some of the unofficial explanations of this selling pointed to various causes, some of them with a deep lying suggestion of a dry humor. Profits had become so attractive as a result of the advance, it was explained, that the successful holders were desirous of reducing their holdings and getting away from the intense heat. Reports varied as to whether the coming departures were to be for Europe or simply for a fishing excursion. The frankness and candor of these explanations and the open manner of the realizing of their profits were taken to argue a lack of astuteness in the method of operators of such skill and experience and led to suspicions that the real process of profit-taking had been already largely completed. New doubts were heard of the reliability of many of the recent rumors of intended dividend increases and it was acutely pointed out that many stocks had been advanced already to a level fully commensurate with the expected dividend increases. This relaxation of confidence in the future on the part of recent speculative leaders and their spirit of resignation to the falling course of prices had a markedly depressing effect on the miscellaneous following of smaller operators and they showed a willingness to make sacrifices to get out of their holdings and limit their losses.

The directors of the United Copper Company have declared an initial regular dividend of ½ of 1 per cent a share on the common stock and an extra dividend of ½ per cent. The dividend on United Copper is payable July 31. Books close July 20 and reopen August 1. No statement as to what period the dividend covers was given out after the meeting of the directors. F. Augustus Heinze says that copper conditions are excellent. A rich ore body has been struck in the Belmont, from which shipments are now being made.

The compilation of listings at the New York stock exchange for the first six months of the year shows the largest aggregate of bonds for any six months and of stocks nine times the amount listed in the first half of 1904. The bonds representing new capital exceed by 70 per cent those for the first half of 1904 and more than twice the amount shown in the first half of any previous year. Some special predisposing causes are recognized, especially the advent of foreign government issues to the market. But the great volume of capital thus offered for flotation makes a clear incentive for the attempt to stimulate interest in the stock market, which has been evident for the past few weeks.

In connection with the fact that the New York Edison company and the Brooklyn Edison company have given a 40,000-horse power contract for steam turbines to the Westinghouse people, it is said that the contract was awarded as a result of an investigation made into the turbine subject by a committee of the National Electric Light association, of which the general manager of the New York Edison company was the chairman. The inference made by electric men is that the Westinghouse-Parsons turbine must have shown to the best advantage under the inspection of this committee, or the Edison company, which is closely affiliated with the General Electric Company, would not have purchased Westinghouse-Parsons turbines.

The gross earnings of Wabash for the first week in July decreased $65,481.

There were 23 New York banks reporting less than 25 per cent reserve in Saturday's statement, 14 national and nine state. This compares with 17 banks below the reserve required in the preceding week, 19 in the week ending July 9, 1904, 23 in the corresponding week in 1903, 17 in the corresponding week of 1902, 17 in the corresponding week of 1901. The total deficit of these 23 banks was $3,860,900, so that if all of them had 25 per cent reserve the surplus would be increased by that amount to $11,818,725 from $7,957,825.

Rates for time money worked firmer in spite of the stock market liquidation in connection with the Japanese loan subscriptions and the London market was affected by the same cause. The rise in sterling at Paris may have been due to remittances from that center to share in the allotment of the Japanese loan.

John H. Smitley has been elected a director of the Commonwealth Trust Company and of the Commercial National bank to succeed the late Jacob S. Reymer. Mr. Smitley is president of Reymer & Bros., Inc.

It is stated on high authority that the Reading management have not considered the conversion of the second preferred or any change whatever in the status of any of the three classes of Reading stock. The street rumors are pronounced entirely premature and without any basis of truth, and even absurd and foolish.

A seat in the New York cotton exchange sold this week at $14,000, the highest price ever paid.

The half yearly dividend just paid by the Bank of France is a reduction equivalent to $1 a share compared with the corresponding period last year.

The demand for new bonds has been disappointing. There remain undistributed, and in the hands of syndicates, about $30,000,000 Southern Pacific refunding 4s; $85,000,000 Pennsylvania convertible 3½s; $50,000,000 Western Pacific 5s; $17,000,000 Colorado & Southern 4½s; and numerous blocks of over $5,000,000 in the hands of syndicates that underwrote minor issues of railway and industrial bonds during the spring and early summer. The public appetite for most of these issues is not good enough to justify pressing them for sale at the present time. The mass of undigested securities appears to be growing rather than diminishing.

There was to have been a meeting of the directors of the Union Pacific Railroad Company yesterday, but no quorum could be obtained and consequently no action was taken on the semi-annual dividends.

MANIPULATED STOCKS IN FACE OF A SLUMP

Upturn of Prices in Wall Street Was Notoriously Professional.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, July 12.—The Herald this (Wednesday) morning says:

Judging from the weakening of yesterday's market upon the first sign of a little disturbing news, the professional element must have met with fair success in the recent past in distributing shares to the traders. Prices broke quite sharply all along the line, and the volume of trading increased materially as the reactionary movement progressed.

As a rule the issues which have been most conspicuous in the professional upbidding on the market scored the most considerable losses on the decline. Speculative sentiment was, of course, depressed, as a result of the reaction, but it is doubtful if any more significance attached to the reaction than to the advice. The upturn of prices was notoriously professional and manipulative. It was fairly successful, and those who engineered it took the profits. The selling, in other words, was as professional as the recent buying. In its most sordid and disgusting phases the whole Equitable Life Assurance society scandal was revived yesterday. The reputation of one man rather prominent in the life of the city went by the boards in the evidence submitted, and per contra a better phase was placed upon the association of banking firms with the whole miserable business. As to the sordidness of the former officials of the company and the use of their positions and the society for graft there is no doubt.

Ostensibly this Equitable disclosure was assigned as the chief reason for the market's weakness. Aside from this, the failure of the Union Pacific directors to obtain a quorum was magnified into a failure of the company to increase its dividend rate on the common stock. Both incidents were fruitful of rumors, the former that other life insurance companies were under investigation for corporate rottenness, and the other that dividends on the roads would not be raised. In fact, bear rumors were abundant.

INQUIRY QUITE BRISK AND BUSINESS HEAVY

General Improvement in Local Markets Continues—New Potatoes Advance.

Good inquiry and brisk business characterized all of the local markets yesterday. In the green goods and produce lines the day proved one of the best Tuesdays for many months, and in several lines the dealers were almost sold out by noon. There were few changes in prices, however, and what there were were generally downward. Washington tomatoes entered the market yesterday, and the price is now lower than it has been any time this spring. New potatoes advanced; fancy to $1 50@1 75 and choice to $1 25@1 35.

The butter market shows a decided improvement over what it was a couple of weeks ago. Pasture is still excellent in the country, and there is plenty of cream, which insures an abundance of good butter. The trade has improved along with the general run of business during the past six weeks.

Groceries had a busy day, but no changes were made in quotations. Flour is still being shaded from 5 to 10 cents, but a little firm tone is indicated by the slight stiffening of the wheat market.

Fruits are plentiful and growing cheaper. Apples are lower, and the prospects for lower-priced fruits of all kinds is good.

HAY AND GRAIN.

Receipts.

Receipts yesterday were: Pennsylvania, 8 cars oats, 1 car straw, 1 car hay; Baltimore & Ohio, 1 car corn, 2 cars hay; Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, 5 cars oats, 1 car hay, 1 car corn.

The grain market continues firm and prices are advancing. Especially is this the case in the west, which will likely be noticeable here before long. Hay receipts are very light. There is little demand for millfeed, and the straw market is weaker.

WHEAT VALUES TAKE AN UPWARD TREND

An Official Forecast of Rain Today in North and South Dakota Is Dominant Factor.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, July 11.—An official forecast of rain for tomorrow in North and South Dakota gave an upward trend to wheat values here today. Improved demand for cash wheat in southwestern markets helped along the advance. At the close the September option was up ⅜@½c. Corn shows a gain of ⅜c. Oats are up ⅛@¼c. Provisions are practically unchanged.

Strength in the wheat market developed soon after the opening. At the start sentiment was inclined to bearishness, owing to generally clear weather west of the Mississippi river. Initial quotations on September were off ⅛@¼c to ¼@⅜c, at 87½@87⅝c. Pit traders and commission houses were moderate sellers, but the volume of trading was restricted by uncertainty over the government report due late today. The market soon became firm on buying resulting from predictions of rain tomorrow in the Dakotas. Another bullish influence was a report from Minneapolis that fresh damage advices had been received today from different points in the spring wheat country. During the last half of the session an improved demand for cash wheat at all large grain centers, especially Kansas City and St. Louis, gave additional support to prices here.

Notwithstanding increased primary receipts, the market held firm throughout the remainder of the day. For September the highest point of the session was reached, at 88⅛@88¼c. There was some profit-taking during the final half hour. As a result, part of the gain was lost. The close, however, was firm, with September at 88c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 18,000 bushels. The world's visible supply, as shown by Bradstreet's, decreased 2,589,000 bushels. Primary receipts were 465,000 bushels, compared with 348,160 bushels a year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 213 cars, against 250 cars a year ago.

Indications of a sharp falling off in receipts, as shown by an estimate of only 153 cars for tomorrow, started active buying of corn by shorts, resulting in a strong market. Early in the session the market was inclined to weakness, influenced by a material decline in the price of corn at Liverpool. Several prominent bulls were among the principal buyers. The market closed strong, with prices near the top. September opened unchanged to ¼c lower, at 54⅞@55c, sold off to 54⅝c, then rallied to 56c and closed at 55⅝c. Local receipts were 654 cars, with 246 of contract grade.

Sentiment in the oats pit was bullish the entire day. The principal strengthening influence was continued wet weather in the oats-producing states, it is reported, resulting in much damage to the new crop in many localities.

Demand for shipment was again of a good character. September opened ⅛ to ¼c higher, at 31⅜ to 31½c, sold up to 31⅝c and closed at 31¼@31⅜c. Local receipts were 209 cars.

Provisions showed some weakness early in sympathy with a 5 to 10c decline in the price of live hogs. Covering by shorts caused a steadier tone late in the session. At the close September pork was unchanged, at $12 85. Lard and ribs were each off 2½c, at $7 20 and $7 80@7 82½.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 17 cars; corn, 153 cars; oats, 79 cars; hogs, 34,000 head.

The Wool Market.

BOSTON, July 11.—Traders agree that the strength of the wool market during the marketing of the present clip is assured. Trading has been quiet, chiefly because of the comparative scarcity of new wools. Although the available offerings of territory wools are slowly increasing they are still small and some time will elapse before dealers are able to show any but the most moderate amount of wool for selection. In this market territory wools are in fair movement, but there is a stronger market for quarter blood whose position has been improved by the higher prices obtained abroad for cross breds. Pulled wools are scarce, foreign wools are strong. The range in this market is about as follows:

Ohio and Pennsylvania, xx and above, 36c; x, 33@34c; No. 1, 41@42c; No. 2, 41@42c; fine unwashed, 28@30c; quarter blood, unwashed, 35@36c; three-eighths blood, 35c; one-half blood, 35c; unwashed delaine, 28@30c; unmerchantable, 30@33c; fine washed delaine, 38@40c.

LONDON, July 11.—The offerings at the wool sales today amounted to 15,[illegible] bales. The attendance was large and competition was good. Choice Tasmania and New South Wales greasy merinos were in demand, and American buyers paid 1s 5½d for suitable parcels. The New South Wales offerings included miscellaneous lots, reshipped from Boston, which sold as high as 1s 5d. Some of this wool was rebought for America. Cross-breds were in large supply and easier owing to the slackened support from Americans. A few lots of fine cross-breds were taken for America. Following are the sales: New South Wales, 1,[illegible] bales; scoured, 10d@1s 10½d; greasy, 7d@1s 3d. Victoria, 200 bales; scoured, 10d@1s 7½d; greasy, 5½@11d. NEWS FROM THE MINES.

More than $1,300,000 gold arrived at Seattle this week from Klondike mines.

The El Paso Consolidated this week reduced its dividend from 3 to 2 cents a share. This explains the recent decline in the stock.

The Portland Gold Mine has declared the usual quarterly dividend of 6 cents per share, and an extra dividend of 4 cents per share, making a total disbursement of $300,000. Since January 1 this company has declared $750,000 in dividends. The dividend is payable July 15.

The Manda group of claims, on Douglas mountain, near Georgetown, Colo., is about to pass into the hands of a syndicate of Pennsylvania capitalists, the consideration, as reported, being $20,000. The group consists of six patented claims, that are being developed by a cross-cut tunnel now in 150 feet. A short time ago the Manda vein was penetrated, and mill runs had from a number of small shipments show the mineral to be worth $15 to the ton. The vein matter measures four feet across, on which considerable drifting has been done. The new company proposes erecting a mill of 25 tons capacity at an early date, in addition to equipping the mines with a complete plant of machinery.

The Cripple Creek output for the first half of 1905 is estimated at $10,858,695.

Advices from the Sugar Loaf district, in Lake county, Colorado, report one of the richest strikes of gold and silver ever made in that section. An 18-inch vein of talc has been uncovered in the bottom level of the Gunnison mine at a depth of 150 feet that runs 6,000 ounces silver and 18 ounces gold per ton, or $4,800 per ton. At some points in the streak solid chunks of silver and gold ore have been taken out. The discovery was made by Walter Crippen, who is leasing the property during the course of development work.

The Metal Market.

NEW YORK, July 11.—The reports of a renewal of the speculative corner in tin in the London market were backed up by a further advance in today's cables which reported spot at £142 15s and futures at £141. Locally the market was steady at $31 25@31 60. Copper was a little higher in London, closing at £66 5s for spot and £66 10s for futures. Locally there are unconfirmed rumors of large sales for future delivery at an advance over spot prices, but these reports lack confirmation. Lake and electrolytic are still quoted at $15 00, and casting at $14 75. Lead was steady but unchanged at $4 50@4 60 locally, and at £13 10s in London. Spelter was a shade lower at £24 in London, but remained steady at $5 35@5 40 in the local market. Iron closed at 49s 4d in Glasgow, and at 45s 4½d in Middlesboro. Locally iron was unchanged. Demand is said to be improving and the market shows a steadier tone with some dealers taking higher prices. No. 1 foundry, northern, is quoted at $16 25@16 50; No. 2 foundry, northern, at $15 50@16 00; No. 1 foundry, southern, at $15 25@15 75; No. 1 foundry, southern soft, at $15 25@16 00; No. 2 foundry, southern, at $14 75@15 25.

BOSTON, July 11.—United States Mining and United States Copper were the features of the Boston market today. The buying of United States Mining has been steady and in good volume for several days, closing very strong tonight at 32½, the rights being $1 bid. United States Copper was strong and active on the declaration of $1 dividend. Centennial and Allouez both showed losses for the day on small selling orders. The rest of the coppers showed a lack of snap, but there is very little stock offered.

"This loan is repayable at par, July 10, 1925, but the Imperial Japanese Government reserves the right to redeem at par all or any of the bonds on or at any time after July 10, 1910, on giving six months' previous notice. The Imperial Japanese Government has the exclusive right to control the cultivation and production of the leaf, and to purchase, import, manufacture and sell tobacco. Payment for bonds allotted is to be made in New York funds as follows:

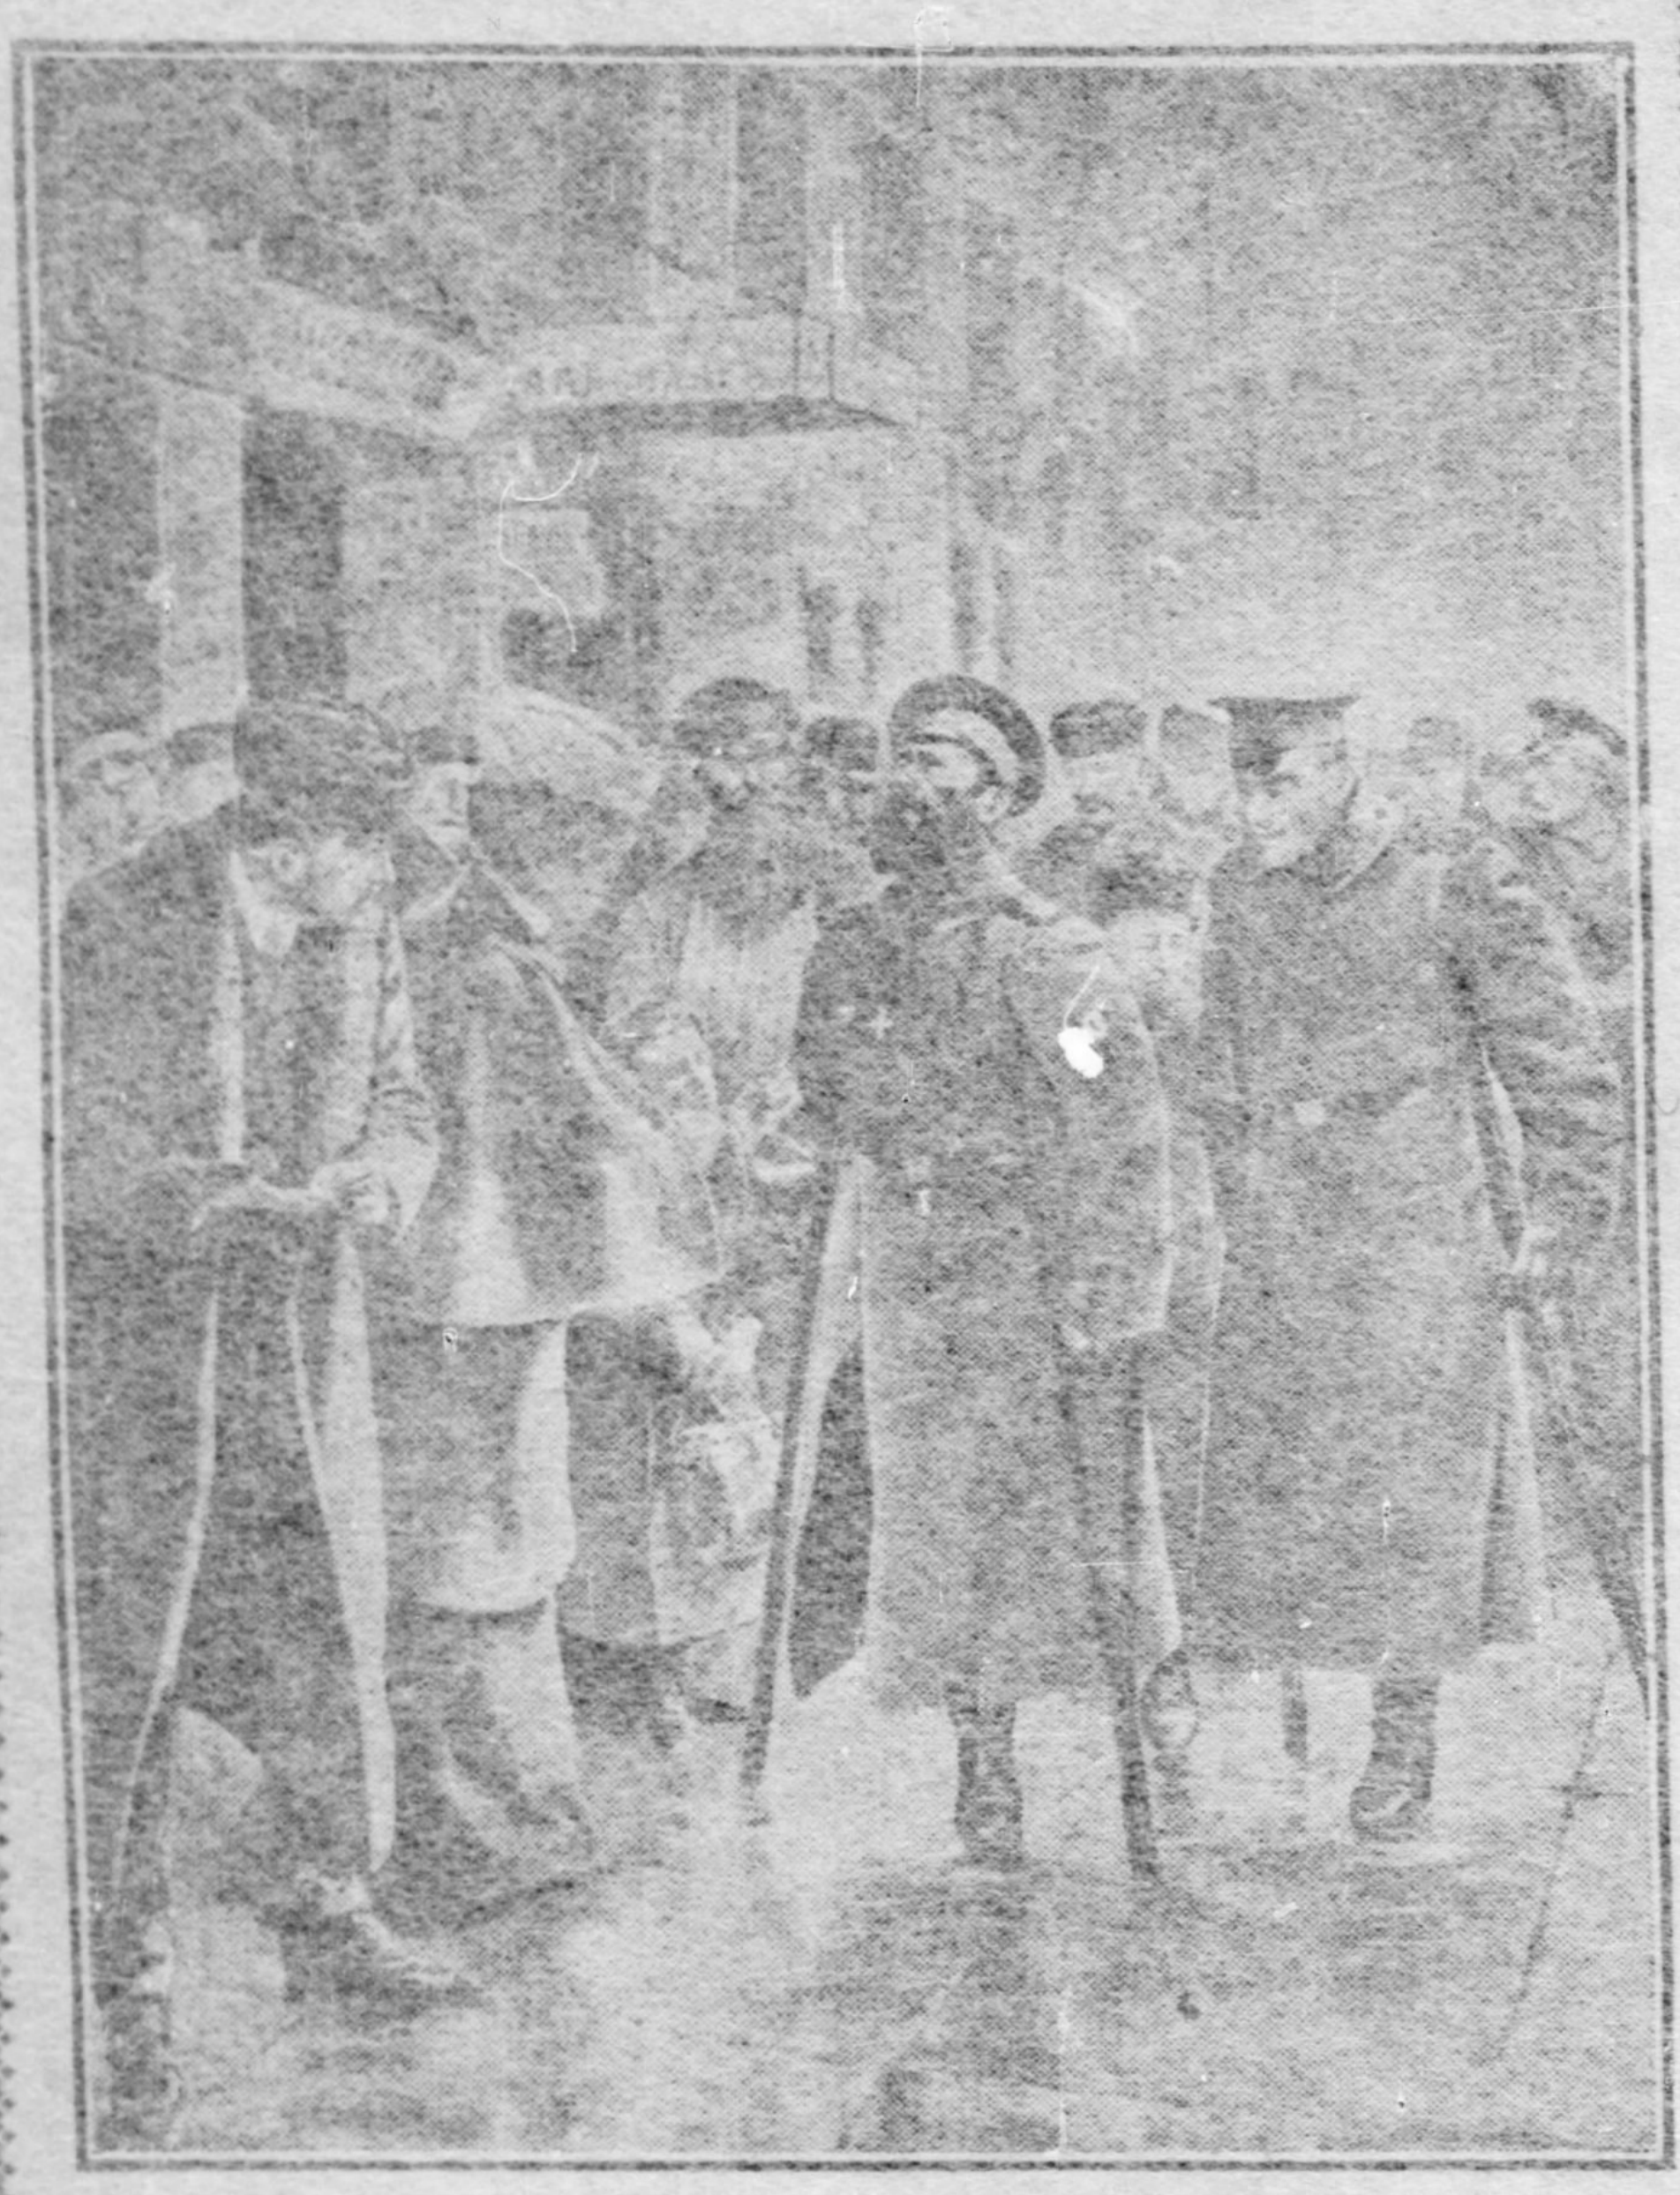
WOUNDED RUSSIAN SOLDIERS RETURNING FROM THE FRONT



A correspondent who sent the photographs from which M. Thiriat reconstructed this picture gives a vivid sketch of the condition of the returning troops. Soldiers have been starting for the front, not with singing, it is true, but looking brave—"good and passive animals in the best of health;" now they look yellow, traces of fever on their faces. Their appearance arouses the utmost sympathy in the streets, all the more as many of them are reduced to begging.

ZIMMERMAN MEN MAY BE BACKERS

Little Kanawha Syndicate Man Gives Such Impression—Pennsylvania Promotions,

TO MOVE WEST PENN OFFICES

That the Zimmerman-Hollins-Cummings syndicate may have a hand in the future of the Little Kanawha syndicate properties is not the remotest matter of conjecture. And this may mean the entrance of the Great Central route into Pittsburgh. This is an ambitious crowd, this strong financial list of backers of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, Pere Marquette and Detroit, Toledo & Ironton railroads. There is an ambition not only to build a line from Southern Ohio to the seaboard, but there is also a desire to get into the West Virginia coal fields that are just being opened up by such roads as the Little Kanawha.

When the question of the Zimmerman crowd having an interest in the future of the Little Kanawha properties was put to a leading member of the syndicate, of which Joseph Ramsey is the head, he replied in a manner that gave the impression that it was not far from the real mark. He denied that the Vanderbilt interests had anything to do with the Little Kanawha's affairs.

Joseph Ramsey is very well disposed toward the Zimmerman people, for he was associated with the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton road for a number of years as chief engineer, and he has been president of the Ann Arbor railroad, which has just been purchased by the Detroit, Toledo & Ironton. Likewise, it is said the Zimmerman-Hollins-Cummings syndicate heads are well disposed toward Mr. Ramsey, who is regarded as one of the best railroad managers and promoters in the country. For the Zimmerman crowd to secure possession of the Little Kanawha road and associated lines and coal properties in West Virginia would be a step into a traffic gold mine. It has been definitely announced that the Detroit, Toledo & Southern will enter the lake ore trade, having facilities for coal and ore hauling through its purchase of the Ann Arbor road and ferries across Lake Michigan. To secure a good return coal haul for the delivery of ore to the furnaces along the Ohio river it would be advantageous to secure such a property as that of the Little Kanawha syndicate. To connect with this property a short line would have to be built in Southern Ohio. It is claimed by one who predicts the Zimmerman influence in the Little Kanawha affairs that the Lorain & Ashland is designed to be a line connecting the Detroit, Toledo & Southern with the Lorain harbor. The Detroit road has secured a traffic arrangement for getting to the Toledo harbor

In this connection it is interesting to note that the Gould interests are reported to be behind the project for a road from Wisconsin through Illinois to St. Louis. The Wisconsin end of the line is to be incorporated as the Milwaukee Southern and the Illinois end as the St. Louis, Peoria & Milwaukee. This is thought to be a Gould enterprise to get into the ore-producing territory of Northern Wisconsin.

Data Against Freight Bodies.

Various shippers' organizations in Chicago and St. Louis, evidently caught by the epidemic for finding fault with railroads and railroad ratings, are gathering data with a view to a possible concerted attack against the validity of the Central Freight association, the Western Trunk Line committee and the Transcontinental Freight bureau. The parties seeking evidence claim that while these bodies avoid coming into conflict with the anti-trust law by not voting to make a certain rate, the matter of rates is talked over and no rate is instituted without notice to the associations. The Pittsburgh lines west are affected in this investigation by being in the Central Freight association territory, which is bounded on the east by Buffalo, Franklin, Pittsburgh, Washington, Wheeling and Kenova; on the south by the Chesapeake & Ohio, on the west by a line from Cairo, Ill., to Chicago, and on the north and west shores of Lakes Michigan and Huron and the Grand Trunk road from Fort Gratiot, Mich., to Toronto.

West Penn Offices in Pittsburgh.

The West Penn division offices of the Pennsylvania railroad will be removed in a few days from the Federal street station in Allegheny to the building at Penn avenue and Tenth street, which is known among the railroad men as the "Old P. Co. building." The removal must be completed before August 1 in order to give way to the removal of the old Federal street station building for the erection of the new station. The temporary station work will be begun in a day or two. The removal of the West Penn division offices will include the whole West Penn force. The offices of Supt. R. W. Morrow, the trainmaster, the division operator and the telegraph department will occupy the fourth floor of the Penn avenue building, while the maintenance of way department, master carpenter and road foreman of engines will be on the fifth floor.

Pennsylvania Mechanical Changes.

Elliott Smith, assistant engineer of motive power of the Pennsylvania railroad at Altoona, has been advanced to a position in Philadelphia in the office of Theodore N. Ely, chief of motive power. He has been succeeded at Altoona by Harry P. Meredith, who was assistant master mechanic in the machine shops at that place. Mr. Meredith is succeeded by Milton J. Davis, inspector at the shops. While the changes were effective July 1, according to the circulars, they were not announced until yesterday. The men have all been trained in the Altoona shops. Mr. Meredith's promotion is notable. He entered the shops as an apprentice a few years ago and by steady application has won the confidence and support of his superiors to such an extent that he is now placed in the responsible position of assistant engineer of motive power.

Railroad Notes.

Joseph A. Steltenkamp, central passenger agent of the Louisville & Nashville, was here from Cincinnati yesterday calling upon General Agent J. F. Hartsough and looking after passenger business.

Col. J. M. Schoonmaker, vice president and general manager of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, is expected to arrive here this morning from his summer home at Spring Lake, N. J.

P. F. Rhoades and "Tucker" Hunt, two well-known Baltimore & Ohio conductors, are in the wilds of West Virginia for trout or bass fishing, the kind to be determined by which fish jumps out of the water first.

The Pennsylvania railroad passenger terminal employes will go by special train today to Idlewild park for their annual summer outing.

Brakeman M. D. Corn of the Panhandle's Washington run is at home at Frazeysburg, O., nursing a mashed hand.

Alexander Fleming, a clerk in the general ore and coal agent's office of the Pennsylvania linest west, is enjoying a vacation at his home in Ohio.

Several brakemen of the Pennsylvania lines west are running double turn because of the heavy picnic business.

E. H. Kennedy, auditor of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, is in Buffalo attending a meeting of the New York Central lines officers.

J. B. Hill, general freight agent of the southwest system of the Pennsylvania lines west, was in Chicago attending traffic meetings.

Conductor E. J. Sybert of the Pennsylvania's Pitcairn accommodation, is going on a vacation visit to Baltimore and Washington. Extra Conductor C. V. McClure is running for him.

By the Leetsdale accommodation train being rearended by a freight train at the Allegheny yards yesterday, Ft. Wayne Conductor A. J. Ebaugh, Brakeman James Garrett and Conductor W. G. Voglesong were injured and were sent to the Mercy hospital. None is seriously hurt.

The Pennsylvania railroad contemplates removing the curve of the eastbound tracks at Tyrone.

Robert J. Woods, formerly fuel agent of the Wabash railroad, has been appointed chief clerk to George G. Yeomans, assistant to the first vice president. The office of fuel agent is abolished.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Transportation club of Cleveland Monday evening resolutions were adopted on the death of the late Daniel H. Maloney.

G. W. Creighton, general superintendent of the Pennsylvania railroad, will sail late this week for Europe.

The Pennsylvania lines west have ordered 10 switching engines, five of which will be built at the Allegheny works of the American Locomotive company and the other five at Schenectady.

Cleveland, O., is considering an underground electric freight line similar to that in Chicago.

The St. Louis & San Francisco has just authorized the purchase of equipment to cost about $3,500,000. An order for 100 self-clearing coal cars of 50-ton capacity was placed with the Pressed Steel Car Company of Pittsburgh.

The differential rate war is not scheduled for today's meeting of the Central Passenger association, but it is probable some action will be taken. The principal roads do not want a bad rate war to come.

General Manager Bejamin McKeen and other officials of the Vandalia railroad were here yesterday conferring with President James McCrea and other officials.

PROMISE TO LEAVE CITY.

New York Women Say They Came West Expecting to Make Higher Wages as Domestics.

Detectives Aymer and Leff yesterday arrested Margaret Weinberger, Louisa Anguga and Rosa Kowash, who, it is thought, were imported to this city for improper purposes. They were discharged on promising to leave the city. The women refused to give the name of the man who brought them to this city from New York. They told the police judge they had been employed in New York as domestics and were informed they could obtain better wages in the west. They went to Cleveland, and as they were unsuccessful there, they accepted a proposition to come here.

Last March Detective Superintendent McQuaide arrested over 40 men who were supposed to be living off women in the Hill district. Some of these men were sent to the workhouse and others were able to pay their fines and leave the city.

Local Man Is Honored.

The Rev. J. L. Milligan, chaplain at the Western penitentiary, will represent the United States government at the international prison conference that convenes at Budapest, Austria, on September 3 next. Mr. Milligan is recognized as one of the foremost authorities on prison work in the world and has represented this country at four previous congresses. S. J. Barrows, secretary of the New York State Prison association, is the other representative.

Another Death from Yellow Fever.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The Panama canal commission received a cable report from Gov. Magoon that August Schimpf, an American employe, was taken sick with yellow fever at Colon, July 4, and that William Cox, an American employe of the Panama railroad, died at the same city.
